RUSSIANS MAKE SOME PROGRESS

Are Now on Hungarian Side of the Carpathians.

GREAT STRUGGLE PROCEEDS

Austrian Official Report Admits Fighting Is Taking Place in the Laborca Valley, While the Russians Announce the Capture of Cisna.

London, April 6.—The attention of the public for the time being is directed toward the great struggle for the Carpathian passes, where the Russians apparently are making very steady progress despite the obstinate resistance offered by the Austrian and German troops.

The Russians are on the Hungarian side of both the Dukla and Lupkow passes and, with the aid of continual reinforcements, are gaining the heights which dominate Uzsok pass.

Even the Austrian official report admits that fighting is now taking place in the Laborca valley, which is south of Lupkow pass, while the Russians announce the capture of Cisna, an important station on the high mountains between Lupkow and Uzsok passes, where they captured a great stock of war munitions and provisions.

The Russians also are advancing from Dukla pass on Hartfeld, which is at the head of the line of railway running south into Hungary, and fighting not far from Mezolaborcz, another important railroad head.

The Russians also are making progress in Northern Poland, a German official report telling of the repulse of a Russian attack on Mariampol, which is considerably west of the region that a few days ago was in the possession of the Germans.

So far as the western front is concerned comparative calm continues.

MAKES DEMAND ON GERMANY

United States Asks Reparation for Sinking Steamer.

Washington, April 6.—On behalf of the owners of the American ship William P. Frye, sunk by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, the United States government, in a note made public, has asked Germany to pay an indemnity of $228,059.54, which represents the cost of the vessel, the freight charges for its cargo and damage resulting from being deprived of the use of the ship.

Inasmuch as the cargo became British owned while en route no claim for damages was presented by the previous American shippers.

It is reported that the German ambassador already has recommended the payment of an indemnity for the loss of the vessel.

ITALIANS ARE INDIGNANT

Steamer Said to Have Been Sunk by German Submarine.

Genoa, Italy, April 6.—News was received here that a German submarine had sunk the Italian steamer Luigi Parodi, which left Baltimore on Jan. 22 with a cargo of coal for Genoa. The report has caused a profound impression here and there are many expressions of resentment.

Great excitement prevails and the authorities have taken strong measures to protect the German colony and German shops from the possible exaction of reprisals.

Nothing is known as to the fate of the crew of the Luigi Parodi, which was made up entirely of Genoese.

The Luigi Parodi was a steamer of 2,672 tons.

TWO GERMAN OFFICERS MAKE THEIR ESCAPE

London, April 6.—Two German officers escaped from the concentration camp for prisoners at Denbigh, Wales. They are Lieutenant von Sanders and Lieutenant Ambler. The latter is one of the aviators rescued from the North sea.

LIBEL CASE TRIAL APRIL 19

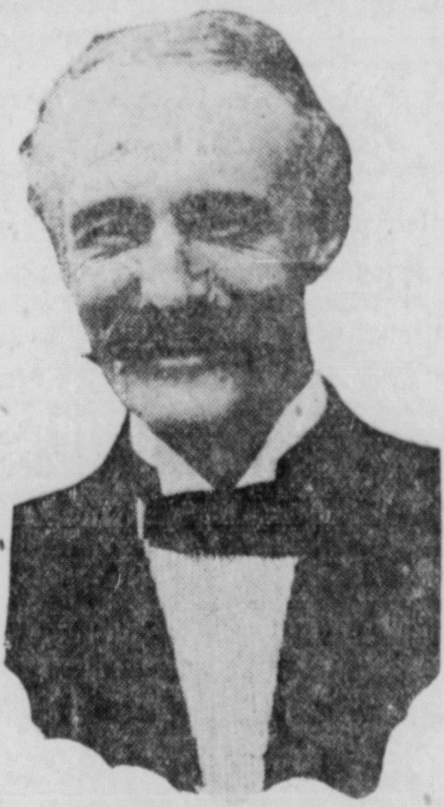

Action of Barnes Against Roosevelt to Have Preference.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 6.—By agreement of counsel for the trial of the $50,000 libel suit brought by William Barnes of Albany against former President Theodore Roosevelt has been set for April 19.

The action will have preference over all other cases on the calendar. The name of the justice who will preside has not been announced.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Germany Expels Special Agent From Belgium.

GERMANY EXPELS GIFFORD PINCHOT

American Special Agent Cannot Remain in Belgium.

The Hague, April 6.—Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester of the United States, who, it is understood, has been acting as special agent for the state department at Washington in the European war zone, has been expelled from Belgium by the German authorities.

Washington, April 6.—Gifford Pinchot, according to advices to the state department, reached Antwerp, Belgium, but was not permitted to proceed farther in his work as member of the American relief commission in Belgium, although detailed as a special diplomatic agent of the American government.

The German authorities objected because Mr. Pinchot's sister is Lady Allen Johnston, wife of the former British minister to Denmark, who still is in the British diplomatic service.

Germany has insisted from the beginning that all agents and consuls of the American government in Belgian territory under German military occupation should have no connection, however remote, with her enemies.

It is understood the state department will assign Mr. Pinchot to other work in the war zone.

HUNGARY NOT AFTER PEACE

Vienna, April 6.—"If our enemies set great hope that internal dissensions of Hungary will bring about a separate peace their disappointment will be equally great," Count Julius Andrássy, former premier of Hungary, said in reference to rumors that the Hungarian opposition desires to conclude peace.

"Certainly, every one desires peace," he continued, "but only a peace calculated to end these evils we are fighting. The political differences existing in Hungary probably will exist in the future, but there are no differences on the point that this war affects the foundations of the state and we must win it."

EXPLOSION OF BLACK DAMP

Eleven Miners Lose Their Lives Near Greenville, Ill.

Greenville, Ill., April 6.—Eleven men lost their lives as the result of a black damp explosion in the Shoal Creek coal mine near here. Approximately 400 others, who had just entered the mine, escaped uninjured. Ten bodies of the dead have been recovered.

An hour before the explosion the mine inspector, after the customary daily examination, had pronounced the mine safe.

GETS $500 FOR DAY'S WORK

Wolf Hunter Captures Mother and Nine Whelps at $50 Each.

Pierre, S. D., April 6.—Fred Hanson, a "wolf" employed by ranchers along the White river to help clear that section of gray wolves, has just collected $500 for one day's work.

Hanson trailed a female wolf to her den in the hills and by digging captured the mother and nine whelps. His contract price was $50 for each gray wolf captured.

BRYAN'S ANSWER BRITISH ORDER

(By United Press)

Washington, April 6.—Diplomatic circles today placed much significance to Secretary Bryan's answer to the British order in council upon the phrase "If the course pursued by the present enemies of Great Britain should prove tainted by illegality and disregard the principles of war sanctioned by enlightened nations, it cannot be supposed that His Majesty's government would wish the same taint attached to their own actions or would cite such illegal acts as a justification for similar practices on their part."

The diplomats regard this statement as the most unreserved and uncompromising the state department has made concerning the submarine blockade of England.

TERRE HAUTE MEN CONVICTED

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 6.—Don Roberts, mayor of Terre Haute, and 26 defendants in the Terre Haute election corruption conspiracy trial were found guilty this morning. The charge against them was that they conspired together for corrupt practice at the election of Nov. 3, 1914. Sentence has not yet been pronounced.

MOST FURIOUS BAYONET BATTLE

(By United Press)

Petrograd, April 6.—The most furious bayonet battle in the history of the world is being fought on the southern ridge and slope of the Carpathians of Lukow Pass. The struggle is proceeding in snow filled gullies and slippery mountain sides. The retreating Austrians have abandoned much artillery.

LABOR PARTY DISPROVES ACTION

(By United Press)

No-wich, Eng., April 6.—The independent labor party here this afternoon adopted resolutions expressing strong disapproval of the participation of that party in the recruiting campaign. The resolutions also disapproved the action of the labor leaders in parliament for taking the platform in such campaigns.

WILLARD OFFERED PICK OF BRITISH

(By United Press)

Havana, April 6.—London promoters this afternoon cabled Willard that he could have the pick of English heavyweights at any time. Willard's managers said that the offer had been rejected.

CURTIS GUILD DIES IN BOSTON

(By United Press)

Boston, April 6.—Curtis Guild, three times governor of Massachusetts and former ambassador to Russia, died this morning of pneumonia.

JAMES S. BELL PASSES AWAY

President of Washburn-Crosby Milling Company Succumbs.

Minneapolis, April 6.—James S. Bell, for twenty-six years president of the Washburn-Crosby Milling company of Minneapolis and who is credited with being responsible for the present greatness of that company, died at his home after a long illness.

Mr. Bell was the son of Samuel Bell, a Philadelphia flour miller, and began his business career as an office boy in his father's mill and flour brokerage offices. In 1868 he became his father's partner, which lasted twenty years.

For many years this firm acted as the Pennsylvania agents of Washburn, Martin & Co. of Minneapolis, which became the Washburn-Crosby company in 1888, and invited Mr. Bell to become a member.

From that time on Mr. Bell lived in Minneapolis. He became president of the firm the following year and held that office continually the remainder of his sixty-seven years.

ESCAPE ATTEMPTED TRAWLER CAUGHT

(By United Press)

London, April 6.—The Steamer Northlands was torpedoed off Beachey Head, in the English channel, Monday afternoon, according to a dispatch from Cardiff, the crew being rescued by the dispatch Blyth. Thirteen members of the crew of the Grimsby, a trawler sunk in the North Sea, was landed this afternoon. The crew of 24 of the Northlands landed by a Belgian steamer, reported that the commander gave them only five minutes to get their boats over, and that they abandoned all their clothing and personal belongings and had rowed less than 100 yards from the boat when she went down. The Atlantic was torpedoed, says a late dispatch. The trawler attempted to escape but was overhauled and sunk after an hour's chase.

JOHNSON'S WIFE TAKEN FROM RING

(By United Press)

Havana, April 6.—During the Johnson-Willard fight, the white girl who married him, sat in the arena and as Johnson smiled she smiled, and her thoughts expressed were that only another misguided white man wanting the heavyweight championship would go down to defeat. But toward the 20th round when Johnson was showing the effect of the fighting her smile waned. She realized that as the wife of the champion she was the center of attraction, but as the wife of "just a black nigger" she was ostracized. At the end of the 20th round Johnson called the promoters and asked to have her taken from the ring. "I don't want to have her see me knocked out," he said.

LATE NORTHWEST NEWS-BULLETINS

(By United Press)

Increased Their Pay

St. Paul, April 6.—The senate this afternoon passed a bill to increase the salaries of the village officers of Hibbing and Chisholm from $10 per month to $100 per month.

Killed Blind Pig Bill

St. Paul, April 6.—Senator Rustad's bill providing a straight jail sentence for blind piggers was killed by a vote of 34 to 20.

Reduce Wolf Bounty

St. Paul, April 6.—A bill reducing the wolf bounty passed the house by a vote of 69 to 34. The new bill provides for a payment of $1 for wolves and $1 for cub wolves.

For Isolated Typhoid Fever

St. Paul, April 6.—Senator Andrews this afternoon introduced a bill appropriating $2,500 for use in caring for isolated typhoid fever cases.

C. J. Swenson, Chairman

St. Paul, April 6.—C. J. Swenson, of St. James, this afternoon became chairman of the state board of control, succeeding Chas. Vasaly, who retires as chairman, although reappointed as a member of the board by Gov. Hammond. The law provides that a member whose term expires first becomes chairman automatically every two years. Vasaly still continues as a member of the state board of parole.

Booze and Oil Nearly Kill Man

The story comes from Pine River that a lumberjack, lying paralyzed drunk on a bed, had his head sprayed with kerosene oil by a drunken companion and the latter then touched a match to it.

His face was burned, ears charred, hair stripped from his head and the sight of one eye may be lost. Another member of the party grabbed a gunny sack and put out the fire. Pine River has no saloons.

Pure Breds Imported

Leith, N. D., April 6.—Ninety two three year olds, and 40 yearling heifers were imported yesterday by Cashier Clair Cornell of the Leith State bank. All pure-bred dual purpose Shorthorns were selected from a herd of 2,500 at St. Paul. The bank is offering the cattle at cost on long time notes, at low interest for the purpose of increasing the dairy industry in southern Noxon county.

AMERICAN NOTE IS MADE PUBLIC

Denies Right of Allies to Interfere With Trade.

EXPECTS FULL REPARATION

In Conclusion the United States Calls Great Britain's Attention to the Fact That Steps Should Be Taken to Avoid Serious Interruption of Trade With Neutral Countries.

Washington, April 6.—The United States government made public its note to Great Britain, announcing that it "could not admit" either the right of the allies or their claims for justification in placing an embargo on all commercial intercourse between Germany and neutral countries.

"To admit it," says the communication, "would be to assume an attitude of unneutrality toward the present enemies of Great Britain, which would be obviously inconsistent with the solemn obligations of this government in the present circumstances, and for Great Britain to make such a claim would be for her to abandon and set at naught the principles for which she has constantly and earnestly contended in other times and circumstances."

Note Reviews Legal Phases.

The note reviews at length the legal phases of a blockade of neutral coasts. In conclusion the United States affirms its expectation that Great Britain, after having considered "the possibilities of serious interruption of American trade," under the order in council, "will take the steps necessary to avoid them and in the event that they should unhappily occur will be prepared to make full reparation for every act which, under the rules of international law, constitutes a violation of neutral rights."

The American communication interprets the circumstances under which Great Britain claims to be justified in adopting retaliatory measures against her enemies as "merely a reason for her naval forces" and not an excuse for or a prelude to any unlawful action.

Should Avoid Same Taint.

"In the course of the present enemies of Great Britain should prove to be in fact tainted by illegality and disregard of the principles of war, sanctioned by enlightened nations, it cannot be supposed and this government does not for a moment suppose that his majesty's government would wish the same taint to attach to their own actions."

Ambassador Sharp at Paris was instructed to present a copy of the American note to Great Britain to the French foreign office with the statement that, although the French admiralty decree had not been received officially in Washington, it was understood here to be identical with the British order in council and the American government therefore made similar reply.

ZEPPELIN SCORES AIRMEN

Count Says Attack on London Has Been Delayed Unnecessarily.

Romanshorn, Switzerland, April 6.—Count Zeppelin is not satisfied with the manner in which his airships are being handled. He called his engineers and captains of the dirigibles now at the Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen and criticized them.

The count said that the full power of the Zeppelins has not been employed and that longer raids are possible. He also said there is too much of a disposition to await favorable weather.

He believes an attack on London and the Lower Thames has been delayed unnecessarily.

FORBIDS USE OF ITS FLAG

Holland Will Detain Any Ship Which Flies Dutch Emblem.

Washington, April 6.—The Netherlands government has notified the United States that any foreign ship misusing the Dutch flag or using other means to make a pretense of possessing Dutch nationality will not be allowed to depart from or pass through waters under the jurisdiction of The Netherlands.

KING GEORGE ON THE WAGON

British Ruler Quits Drinking Wines or Spirits.

London, April 6.—Teetotalism will be enforced in all the king's households, beginning Wednesday. An official announcement just issued, dated April 6, says:

"By the king's commands, no wines or spirits will be consumed in any of his majesty's houses after today."

CURTIS GUILD.

Former Governor of Massachusetts Dead.

CURTIS GUILD IS DEAD

Former Governor of Massachusetts Succumbs to Pneumonia.

Boston, April 6.—Curtis Guild, a former governor of Massachusetts and former ambassador to Russia, died following a four days' illness with pneumonia. He was born Feb. 2, 1860, in Boston.

ASSERTS BRITISH VIOLATE NEUTRALITY

Dudley F. Malone May Go Before Grand Jury.

New York, April 6.—Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port, charged the British cruisers patrolling the waters along the coast of the United States had been violating the neutrality law by coaling and taking on supplies from vessels putting out from the port of New York.

Mr. Malone had an extended conference with United States District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall regarding the state of affairs he asserts he has discovered and declared he intended to bring the subject to the attention of the federal grand jury.

Mr. Malone said that for some weeks he had been making an investigation of information that had come to him from various sources that the British cruisers lying off the entrance to New York harbor had been receiving food and coal from here. On board the United States torpedo boat destroyer Parker the collector had been making trips about the harbor and outside Sandy Hook on many nights during several weeks past.

Mr. Malone admitted he had evidence to show there was a supply base for the cruisers in a downtown hotel in this city from which the food-stuffs are taken to various piers, then loaded on lighters and sent to sea, where they meet British cruisers outside the three-mile limit.

FOUND WITH BIBLE IN LAP

Minneapolis Young Man Ends Life by Shooting.

Minneapolis, April 6.—Martin Larson, aged twenty-four years, committed suicide at his home here by firing a bullet through his heart.

Larson attended church in the evening. Returning home he went into the kitchen and was sitting there when other members of the family retired.

In the morning they found the body of the young man, still in sitting posture, with a Bible open at the story of the resurrection of Christ in his lap.

"DRYS" WIN IN MICHIGAN

At Least Eight Out of Twelve Wet Counties Vote Out Saloons.

Detroit, Mich., April 6.—Returns received indicated sweeping victories for the "drys" in the local option contests which featured the Michigan state election. Incomplete returns showed large majorities for the Republican state ticket.

All the four "dry" counties—Fenton, Lenawee, Genesee and Sanilac—remained in the "dry" column with comfortable majorities.

At least eight of the "wet" counties, where local option was at stake, apparently went over to the "dry" side.

JOHNSON LEADS TWENTY ROUNDS

Willard Lands Knockout Punch in the Twenty-sixth.

LARGE CROWD VIEWS FIGHT

Colored Pugilist Loses His Title as Heavyweight Champion of the World to Jess Willard at Havana After Punching and Pounding His Opponent at Will for Twenty Rounds.

Havana, April 6.—Jack Johnson, exile from his own country, lost his claim to the title of champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, the title being wrested from him by Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, the biggest man who ever entered the prize ring, and a "white hope" who at last has made good.

Johnson, his wife and a little group of friends, will sail for Martinique, there to await passage back to France, where Johnson proposes to settle down and lead the life of a farmer, raising pigs and chickens. There is no doubt that he is through with the ring.

Willard is going back to the United States to win the fortune which was denied him when Johnson got $30,000 before the fight started, Willard taking only a small share of the net receipts. Just what his share was is not known.

The crowd which paid to see the fight would be difficult to estimate, but it looked to number between 15,000 and 20,000. In addition fully 5,000 persons viewed the fight from the distant slopes and hills.

There was virtually no big betting here on the fight. The odds for small wagers varied from 8 to 5 to 6 to 5 on the negro.

Probably Has No Parallel.

The fight probably has no parallel in the history of ring battles. For twenty rounds Johnson punched and pounded Willard at will, but his blows grew perceptibly less powerful as the fight progressed, until at last he seemed unable or unwilling to go on.

He stopped leading and for three or four rounds the bout was little more than a series of poses by the white and black gladiators.

So it was until the twenty-fifth round, when Willard got one of his widely swinging right hand smashes to Johnson's heart. This was the beginning of the end.

When the round closed Johnson sent word to his wife that he was all in and told her to start for home. She was on the way out and was passing the ring in the twenty-sixth round when a stinging left to the body and a right to the jaw caused Johnson to crumple on the floor of the ring, where he lay partly outside the ropes until the referee counted ten and by raising Willard's arm proclaimed the coronation of the new heavyweight king.

There is much discussion among the followers of the fighting game as to whether Johnson was really knocked out or lay down. In the sense of being smashed into unconsciousness he certainly was not put out.

Chose to Take the Count.

The consensus of opinion is that Johnson knew there was no possibility of his winning and when knocked down he chose to take the count rather than rise and stand further punishment.

Johnson has often stated that fighting is a business and he would not foolishly submit to repeated knock-downs when he found he had met his master. A second or two after Jack Welch, the referee, had counted ten Johnson quickly got up.

It was well that he did so, for a moment later a rush of spectators to the fighting platform all but smothered the pugilists.

For an instant it seemed as if trouble was threatened, but fifty or more of the several hundred soldiers stationed about the arena jumped into the ring and formed a circle around the victor and the vanquished.

Under escort of the soldiers Willard and Johnson left the ring and went to their dressing rooms amid hysterical cheering of the crowd, made wildly enthusiastic by the victory of the white man.

Willard was out of his dressing room in a few minutes and hurried to Havana in an automobile. He was escorted half way back to the city by a troop of Cuban cavalry.

Crowds which streamed out of the race track inclosure after the knock-out lined the roadway and cheered Willard wildly as his car spun down the highway toward the city.

Self Satisfaction Explained.

He—I like simple things best. She—I've noticed how self satisfied you are.—Boston Transcript.

Booze and Oil Nearly Kill Man

The story comes from Pine River that a lumberjack, lying paralyzed drunk on a bed, had his head sprayed with kerosene oil by a drunken companion and the latter then touched a match to it.

His face was burned, ears charred, hair stripped from his head and the sight of one eye may be lost. Another member of the party grabbed a gunny sack and put out the fire. Pine River has no saloons.

Pure Breds Imported

Leith, N. D., April 6.—Ninety two three year olds, and 40 yearling heifers were imported yesterday by Cashier Clair Cornell of the Leith State bank. All pure-bred dual purpose Shorthorns were selected from a herd of 2,500 at St. Paul. The bank is offering the cattle at cost on long time notes, at low interest for the purpose of increasing the dairy industry in southern Norton county.

Denies Right of Allies to Interfere With Trade.

EXPECTS FULL REPARATION

In Conclusion the United States Calls Great Britain's Attention to the Fact That Steps Should Be Taken to Avoid Serious Interruption of Trade With Neutral Countries.

Washington, April 6.—The United States government made public its note to Great Britain, announcing that it "could not admit" either the right of the allies or their claims for justification in placing an embargo on all commercial intercourse between Germany and neutral countries.

"To admit it," says the communication, "would be to assume an attitude of unneutrality toward the present enemies of Great Britain, which would be obviously inconsistent with the solemn obligations of this government in the present circumstances, and for Great Britain to make such a claim would be for her to abandon and set at naught the principles for which she has constantly and earnestly contended in other times and circumstances."

Note Reviews Legal Phases.

The note reviews at length the legal phases of a blockade of neutral coasts. In conclusion the United States affirms its expectation that Great Britain, after having considered "the possibilities of serious interruption of American trade," under the order in council, "will take the steps necessary to avoid them and in the event that they should unhappily occur will be prepared to make full reparation for every act which, under the rules of international law, constitutes a violation of neutral rights."

The American communication interprets the circumstances under which Great Britain claims to be justified in adopting retaliatory measures against her enemies as "merely a reason for her naval forces" and not an excuse for or a prelude to any unlawful action.

Should Avoid Same Taint.

"In the course of the present enemies of Great Britain should prove to be in fact tainted by illegality and disregard of the principles of war, sanctioned by enlightened nations, it cannot be supposed and this government does not for a moment suppose that his majesty's government would wish the same taint to attach to their own actions."

Ambassador Sharp at Paris was instructed to present a copy of the American note to Great Britain to the French foreign office with the statement that, although the French admiralty decree had not been received officially in Washington, it was understood here to be identical with the British order in council and the American government therefore made similar reply.

ZEPPELIN SCORES AIRMEN

Count Says Attack on London Has Been Delayed Unnecessarily.

Romanshorn, Switzerland, April 6.—Count Zeppelin is not satisfied with the manner in which his airships are being handled. He called his engineers and captains of the dirigibles now at the Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen and criticized them.

The count said that the full power of the Zeppelins has not been employed and that longer raids are possible. He also said there is too much of a disposition to await favorable weather.

He believes an attack on London and the Lower Thames has been delayed unnecessarily.

FORBIDS USE OF ITS FLAG

Holland Will Detain Any Ship Which Flies Dutch Emblem.

Washington, April 6.—The Netherlands government has notified the United States that any foreign ship misusing the Dutch flag or using other means to make a pretense of possessing Dutch nationality will not be allowed to depart from or pass through waters under the jurisdiction of The Netherlands.

KING GEORGE ON THE WAGON

British Ruler Quits Drinking Wines or Spirits.

London, April 6.—Teetotalism will be enforced in all the king's households, beginning Wednesday. An official announcement just issued, dated April 6, says:

"By the king's commands, no wines or spirits will be consumed in any of his majesty's houses after today."

CURTIS GUILD IS DEAD

Boston, April 6.—Curtis Guild, a former governor of Massachusetts and former ambassador to Russia, died following a four days' illness with pneumonia. He was born Feb. 2, 1860, in Boston.

Dudley F. Malone May Go Before Grand Jury.

New York, April 6.—Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port, charged the British cruisers patrolling the waters along the coast of the United States had been violating the neutrality law by coaling and taking on supplies from vessels putting out from the port of New York.

Mr. Malone had an extended conference with United States District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall regarding the state of affairs he asserts he has discovered and declared he intended to bring the subject to the attention of the federal grand jury.

Mr. Malone said that for some weeks he had been making an investigation of information that had come to him from various sources that the British cruisers lying off the entrance to New York harbor had been receiving food and coal from here. On board the United States torpedo boat destroyer Parker the collector had been making trips about the harbor and outside Sandy Hook on many nights during several weeks past.

Mr. Malone admitted he had evidence to show there was a supply base for the cruisers in a downtown hotel in this city from which the foodstuffs are taken to various piers, then loaded on lighters and sent to sea, where they meet British cruisers outside the three-mile limit.

FOUND WITH BIBLE IN LAP

Minneapolis Young Man Ends Life by Shooting.

Minneapolis, April 6.—Martin Larson, aged twenty-four years, committed suicide at his home here by firing a bullet through his heart.

Larson attended church in the evening. Returning home he went into the kitchen and was sitting there when other members of the family retired.

In the morning they found the body of the young man, still in sitting posture, with a Bible open at the story of the resurrection of Christ in his lap.

"DRYS" WIN IN MICHIGAN

At Least Eight Out of Twelve Wet Counties Vote Out Saloons.

Detroit, Mich., April 6.—Returns received indicated sweeping victories for the "drys" in the local option contests which featured the Michigan state election. Incomplete returns showed large majorities for the Republican state ticket.

All the four "dry" counties—Fenton, Lenawee, Genesee and Sanilac—remained in the "dry" column with comfortable majorities.

At least eight of the "wet" counties, where local option was at stake, apparently went over to the "dry" side.

JOHNSON LEADS TWENTY ROUNDS

Willard Lands Knockout Punch in the Twenty-sixth.

LARGE CROWD VIEWS FIGHT

Colored Pugilist Loses His Title as Heavyweight Champion of the World to Jess Willard at Havana After Punching and Pounding His Opponent at Will for Twenty Rounds.

Havana, April 6.—Jack Johnson, exile from his own country, lost his claim to the title of champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, the title being wrested from him by Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, the biggest man who ever entered the prize ring, and a "white hope" who at last has made good.

Johnson, his wife and a little group of friends, will sail for Martinique, there to await passage back to France, where Johnson proposes to settle down and lead the life of a farmer, raising pigs and chickens. There is no doubt that he is through with the ring.

Willard is going back to the United States to win the fortune which was denied him when Johnson got $30,000 before the fight started, Willard taking only a small share of the net receipts. Just what his share was is not known.

The crowd which paid to see the fight would be difficult to estimate, but it looked to number between 15,000 and 20,000. In addition fully 5,000 persons viewed the fight from the distant slopes and hills.

There was virtually no big betting here on the fight. The odds for small wagers varied from 8 to 5 to 6 to 5 on the negro.

Probably Has No Parallel.

The fight probably has no parallel in the history of ring battles. For twenty rounds Johnson punched and pounded Willard at will, but his blows grew perceptibly less powerful as the fight progressed, until at last he seemed unable or unwilling to go on.

He stopped leading and for three or four rounds the bout was little more than a series of poses by the white and black gladiators.

So it was until the twenty-fifth round, when Willard got one of his widely swinging right hand smashes to Johnson's heart. This was the beginning of the end.

When the round closed Johnson sent word to his wife that he was all in and told her to start for home. She was on the way out and was passing the ring in the twenty-sixth round when a stinging left to the body and a right to the jaw caused Johnson to crumple on the floor of the ring, where he lay partly outside the ropes until the referee counted ten and by raising Willard's arm proclaimed the coronation of the new heavyweight king.

There is much discussion among the followers of the fighting game as to whether Johnson was really knocked out or lay down. In the selfish of being smashed into unconsciousness he certainly was not put out.

Chose to Take the Count.

The consensus of opinion is that Johnson knew there was no possibility of his winning and when knocked down he chose to take the count rather than rise and stand further punishment.

Johnson has often stated that fighting is a business and he would not foolishly submit to repeated knockdowns when he found he had met his master. A second or two after Jack Welch, the referee, had counted ten Johnson quickly got up.

It was well that he did so, for a moment later a rush of spectators to the fighting platform all but smothered the pugilists.

For an instant it seemed as if trouble was threatened, but fifty or more of the several hundred soldiers stationed about the arena jumped into the ring and formed a circle around the victor and the vanquished.

Under escort of the soldiers Willard and Johnson left the ring and went to their dressing rooms amid hysterical cheering of the crowd, made wildly enthusiastic by the victory of the white man.

Willard was out of his dressing room in a few minutes and hurried to Havana in an automobile. He was escorted half way back to the city by a troop of Cuban cavalry.

Crowds which streamed out of the race track inclosure after the knock-out lined the roadway and cheered Willard wildly as his car spun down the highway toward the city.

NATURE'S RELIABLE GUIDE

The Weekly News Letter, Published
by the Department of Agriculture, Give these Pointers

Nature furnishes guides for garden planting which are even more reliable than the calendar, according to the department's garden specialist.
The old residents of the soil such as
the maple, dogwood, and white oak
are the best interpreters of nature's moods in spring, and quickly reflect them, so that the gardener who follows their silent suggestions may arrange the planting of his vegetables accordingly.

When the silver maples begin to put forth their leaves and the "catkins" appear on the willows and poplars, nature is indicating that the season is right for the planting of such vegetables as lettuce, mustard,
onion seeds and onion sets, parsley,
the round-seeded peas, early Irish potatoes, radishes, spinach, and turnips.
This, of course, is provided that the soil is in good order, which can be determined by taking a handful at a depth of 3 or 4 inches from the surface, compact it in the hand by closing the fingers, and if, upon opening
them, the ball of earth gradually falls apart, it is ready to be spaded. Manure should then be buried a full spade depth below the surface and the soil should be made fine and compact with an even surface.

Not until about 10 days after nature
has set the date for the above-mentioned vegetables should such garden truck as beets, carrots, and kohlrabi be planted. A second sowing of peas can also be made at this time.

The dogwood and the white oak begin to show signs of awakening at a time when other vegetables may be planted. These include bush and pole beans, sweet corn, cucumbers, muskmelons, watermelons, and various kinds of squash. The gardener and housewife will rarely plant too early if they but wait for nature to tell them what to do.

TOM WOOD IN NEW ROLE

Poses in Stephenson Underwear Mills
Union Suit, Special Size Made
For Him

Tom Woods, also known as "Fatty", has adopted a new role. The young man who weighs 450 pounds, stands 6 feet 3 inches in height and measures 64 inches around the waist
and who rode a wheel until such rolling stock refused to support his weight, is a most healthy and vigorous example of a young man born and raised in Brainerd.

He has been asked to pose in a Stephenson Underwear Mills union
suit through the instrumentality of John Carlson & Son and today is having his picture taken, and the latter will be used on advertising matter
throughout the world.

Any foreign nation seeing "Fatty"
in a union suit will think twice of attacking America while such young hopefuls are in the west.

B. C. Stephenson, secretary and treasurer of the company, stated that in 1872, '73 and '74 he clerked for Power Bros. of St. Paul. A Mr. Kindred
was a great friend of the Powers and in those years played cards frequently late at night in the store. Kindred was chief or assistant clerk in the land department of the Northern Pacific. Being friendly to the writer as a boy, Kindred offered opportunity for investment of small sums in lots and lands where stations and towns were to be located. Mr. Stephenson said he could have invested a few hundred dollars which would have yielded great wealth in a dozen or 20 years. It was a great opportunity—could have been improved, but the money was spent in other ways and therein was one of the great mistakes of the underwear man's life opportunities not fully recognized. In after years Mr. Kindred was located in Brainerd and Mr. Stephenson wished to know if he still survived.

"Fatty" Wood is already being advertised to the world, for yesterday
he got an offer from the Rice & Dore water carnival river exposition company. They asked him how much salary he wanted, and requested him
to send his photo.

Mr. Wood has a song and dance act
to his credit which would take on the vaudeville circuit. When he appeared at Crosby it was necessary to enlarge the stage and to widen the stage entrance.

HERE'S A RACE
NOT OF BASEBALL.

Johnny Evers watches with peculiar interest the work of Frank Schulte, his old teammate, for he and Frank are competitors in a race, or rather, an endurance contest.

"Of the old Cub machine Frank Schulte and myself are all that
are left in big league baseball," writes Evers, "and Frank has to go some to beat me out."

"I don't mean by this that I think Frank is slowing up or going back in any way, because I don't, but I just take this means of challenging him to a race for
the honor of being the last member of the greatest baseball machine of all time to pass out from under the big tent."

Rosewood.

Most people have the idea that rosewood takes its name from its color, but this is a mistake, for true rosewood is almost black of hue. Its name comes from the fact that when first cut it exhales a perfume similar to that of the rose, and, although the dried rosewood of commerce retains no traces of this early perfume, the name lingers as a relic of the early history of the wood.

A Sad Thought.

"These incubators make me feel bad for the poor little chickens who have no mother's care. They are really melancholy."

"Perhaps; they're brooders."—Baltimore American.

Today, tomorrow, and all next week the thoughts of a big majority of style-appreciative women will be centered
upon spring apparel.

The question of what kind of a Dress to make for this occasion, the material it shall be made of, must be decided within this period—otherwise it will be impossible to have it ready in time for warm days.

To those of our customers whose fancy turns to Silks, we say—our silk department is splendidly ready with a superb array of handsome styles that will make choosing a genuine pleasure. To those who prefer something in wool or silk and wool fabrics—we do not hesitate to say that our assortment of

LaPote Styles

is the most comprehensive and moderately priced in town.

Fabrics splendidly adapted to all the prevailing Garment Styles—the long coated—the short or flounce skirt-
ed Street Dress; flounced or flaring skirted afternoon dresses, as well as staple fabrics for any style Dress you may want, are all to be found in our displays at prices you'll be glad to pay.

The exquisite Springtime shades: the Crow Blues, Dutch Blues, Dark Greys, Russian Greens, Pansy Purples, Wild Rose, Sand and Putty shades, in plain or in Embroidered effects, are completely represented in nearly all the new fabrics. In the sheer, all wool weaves, such as Crepe Gabardines, Tussah Crepes, Poplin Rayures and Voiles, or in Silk and Wool fabrics, it is doubtful whether a greater variety of Styles could be found anywhere than will be displayed right here in your favorite store.

Why not come in, make a selection, and get started on the new dress tomorrow.

Wednesday*Tender Tulips Tasty.

Even the Americans, whose taste in vegetables is far more comprehensive than ours, have not learned to eat tulips, yet these plants, according to Sir
Kenelm Digby, provide a palatable substitute for green peas. In the "Discourse on Vegetation" we are told:
"About the beginning of May the flowering leaves of tulips do fall away, and there remains within them the end of the stalk, which in time will turn to seed. Take that seed and then very tenderly and pick from it the little excrescences about it and cut it into short pieces and boil them and dress them as you would peas, and they will taste
like peas and be very savory."—London

ELECTION DAY
Large Vote is Being Cast—Weather is Balmly and the Sun Shone all Day Long
Today is election day. The air is balmly and warm sunshine is permeating every inch of the city's domain. A large vote is being cast in every ward of the city and it is expected that at least 1,800 ballots will be cast in the city election.
City officers are to be elected, the wet and dry issue decided, the new charter is to stand or fall and various amendments are to be considered, so many questions being sure to cause hours to elapse before final results can be ascertained the next day.
The vote in the wards at specified hours stood:
First Ward (2:15 P. M.)----- 240
Second Ward (2:20 P. M.)----- 273
Third Ward (2:25 P. M.)----- 175
Fourth Ward (2:20 P. M.)----- 129
Fifth Ward (2:00 P. M.)----- 200

NATURE'S RELIABLE GUIDE
The Weekly News Letter, Published
by the Department of Agriculture, Give these Pointers Nature furnishes guides for garden planting which are even more reliable than the calendar, according to
the department's garden specialist.
The old residents of the soil such as
the maple, dogwood, and white oak
are the best interpreters of nature's moods in spring, and quickly reflect
them, so that the gardener who follows
their silent suggestions may arrange
the planting of his vegetables accordingly.
When the silver maples begin to
put forth their leaves and the "cat-
kins" appear on the willows and poplars, nature is indicating that the
season is right for the planting of
such vegetables as lettuce, mustard,
onion seeds and onion sets, parsley,
the round-seeded peas, early Irish potatoes, radishes, spinach, and turnips.
This, of course, is provided that the soil is in good order, which can be determined by taking a handful at a depth of 3 or 4 inches from the surface, compact it in the hand by closing the fingers, and if, upon opening
them, the ball of earth gradually falls apart, it is ready to be sowed. Manure should then be buried a full spade
depth below the surface and the soil should be made fine and compact with
an even surface.
Not until about 10 days after nature
has set the date for the above-mentioned vegetables should such garden truck as beets, carrots, and kohi-rabi be planted. A second sowing of peas
can also be made at this time.
The dogwood and the white oak begin to show signs of awakening at a time when other vegetables may be planted. These include bush and pole
beans, sweet corn, cucumbers, musk-
melons, watermelons, and various kinds of squash. The gardener and housewife will rarely plant too early if they wait for nature to tell them what to do.

Rosewood.
Most people have the idea that rosewood takes its name from its color, but this is a mistake, for true rosewood is almost black of hue. Its name comes from the fact that when first cut it exhales a perfume similar to that of the
rose, and, although the dried rosewood
of commerce retains no traces of this early perfume, the name lingers as a relic of the early history of the wood.
A Sad Thought.

for the poor little chickens who have no mother's care. They are really melancholy."

TOM WOOD IN NEW ROLE
Poses in Stephenson Underwear Mills
Union Suit, Special Size Made
For Him
Tom Woods, also known as "Fatty", has adopted a new role. The young man who weighs 450 pounds,
stands 6 feet 3 inches in height and
measures 64 inches around the waist
and who rode a wheel until such rolling stock refused to support his weight, is a most healthy and vigorous example of a young man born and raised in Brainerd.
He has been asked to pose in a
Stephenson Underwear Mills union
suit through the instrumentality of John Carlson & Son and today is having his picture taken, and the latter
will be used on advertising matter
throughout the world.
Any foreign nation seeing "Fatty"
in a union suit will think twice of attacking America while such young
hopefuls are in the west.
B. C. Stephenson, secretary and treasurer of the company, stated that
in 1872, '73 and '74 he clerked for Power Bros. of St. Paul. A Mr. Kindred
was a great friend of the Powers and in those years played cards frequently late at night in the store. Kindred was chief or assistant clerk in the land department of the Northern Pacific. Being friendly to the writer as a boy, Kindred offered opportunity for investment of
small sums in lots and lands where stations and towns were to be located. Mr. Stephenson said he could have invested a few hundred dollars
which would have yielded great wealth in a dozen or 20 years. It was a great opportunity—could have been improved, but the money was spent in other ways and therein was one of the three great mistakes of the underwear man's life opportunities not fully recognized. In after years Mr. Kindred was located in Brainerd and Mr. Stephenson wished
to know if he still survived.
"Fatty" Wood is already being advertised to the world, for yesterday
he got an offer from the Riles & Dore water carnival river exposition company. They asked him how much salary he wanted, and requested him
to send his photo.
Mr. Wood has a song and dance act
to his credit which would take on the vaudeville circuit. When he appeared at Crosby it was necessary to enlarge the stage and to widen the stage entrance.

ANNUAL MEETING
Of Evergreen Cemetery Association.
The annual meeting of the Evergreen Cemetery Association will be held at the Probate Court Rooms, in the County Court House, (tonight)
Tuesday evening, the 6th day of April 1915, at eight o'clock sharp.
This meeting is for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, and to transact such other business as may be for the betterment of said association.
Every lot owner is a member of this association, and should take an active part in the future welfare of this beautiful resting place of our loved ones dead.
MILTON McFADDEN,
Secretary,
Evergreen Cemetery Association.

HERE'S A RACE
NOT OF BASEBALL.
Johnny Evers watches with peculiar interest the work of Frank Schulte, his old teammate, for he and Frank are competitors in a race, or, rather, an endurance contest.
"Of the old Cub machine Frank Schulte and myself are all that
are left in big league baseball,"
writes Evers, "and Frank has to
go some to beat me out."
"I don't mean by this that I think Frank is slowing up or going back in any way, because I don't, but I just take this means
of challenging him to a race for
the honor of being the last member of the greatest baseball machine of all time to pass out
from under the big tent."

Today, tomorrow, and all next week the thoughts of a big majority of style-appreciative women will be centered
upon spring apparel.
The question of what kind of a Dress to make for this occasion, the material it shall be made of, must be decided within this period—otherwise it will be impossible to have it ready in time for warm days.
To those of our customers whose fancy turns to Silks, we say—our silk department is splendidly ready with a superb array of handsome styles that will make choosing a genuine pleasure. To those who prefer something in wool or silk and wool fabrics—we do not hesitate to say that our assortment of LaPote Styles
is the most comprehensive and moderately priced in town.
Fabrics splendidly adapted to all the prevailing Garment Styles—the long coated—the short or flounce skirt-
ed Street Dress; flounced or flaring skirted afternoon dresses, as well as staple fabrics for any style Dress you may want, are all to be found in our displays at prices you'll be glad to pay.
The exquisite Springtime shades: the Crow Blues, Dutch Blues, Dark Greys, Russian Greens, Pansy Purples, Wild Rose, Sand and Putty shades, in plain or in Embroidered effects, are completely represented in nearly all the new fabrics. In the sheer, all wool weaves, such as Crepe Gabardines, Tussah Crepes, Poplin Rayures and Voiles, or in Silk and Wool fabrics, it is doubtful whether a greater variety of Styles could be found anywhere than will be displayed right here in your favorite store.
Why not come in, make a selection, and get started on the new dress tomorrow.

UMPIRE AS DRAWING CARD.
Ryan Goes Back to Texas League Because He is Popular.
Did you ever hear of a league hiring an umpire as a drawing card? Well, that's what happened to Gerald Ryan,
who used to guess them in the A. A.
Gerald used to play ball in the Texas league long ago and made quite a rep.
This season he's going back to the Texas league as chief umpire at the highest salary the league ever paid—because they figure Gerald is so well known he'll draw them in.

Tender Tulips Tasty.
Even the Americans, whose taste in vegetables is far more comprehensive than ours, have not learned to eat tu-
lips, yet these plants, according to Sir
Kenelm Digby, provide a palatable
substitute for green peas. In the "Discourse on Vegetation" we are told:
"About the beginning of May the flowering leaves of tulips do fall away, and there remains within them the end of
the stalk, which in time will turn to seed. Take that seed and then very tenderly and pick from it the little excrescences about it and eat it into short pieces and boil them and dress them as you would peas, and they will taste
like peas and be very savory."—London

At the Empress

Mr. Wolfe states that the bill today will be a surprise to the picture fans of the city. The Empress has secured the new United Film Co.'s program. New people, new film, five reels of their best photo plays will be shown every Tuesday commencing today. Tomorrow is feature day. The World Film corporation present "Money." You never heard of this play, its title, its story and the leading actors may be unknown to you. But, the play is the thing. "Money" tells a heart gripping story. In one of the scenes an entire palace is burned and destroyed.

With all its rich oriental furnishings and hangings, the California scenery is wonderfully beautiful. The action furnishes thrill upon thrill.

At the Grand

"Master Key" tonight. This episode is next to the last. These last installments are more than interesting. Also "The Terrors of the Jungle," two-reel 101 Bison animal drama, features William Clifford and Marie Walcamp. Five reels every night for 5 and 10 cents.

Absolute Zero.

The absolute zero of temperature, absence of all heat energy, is 461 degrees below the zero of Fahrenheit. Liquid helium is 454 below, liquid air 310, and liquid hydrogen 418. These degrees of cold are beyond comprehension. And many new properties of matter have been discovered by subjecting various phases—elements—to these low temperatures. Thus, it is a theory that chemically pure metals would allow all of a current of electricity to pass without resistance—that is, the more nearly the absolute purity and absolute cold are reached the less the observed and measured resistance to flow of electricity.—New York American.

Meat Rolls.

Sift two cupfuls of flour twice with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one of salt and chop into this two tablespoonfuls of lard and one of butter. Moisten with milk (about one-half cup) and roll out one-half inch thick into oblong shape. Spread with chopped, cooked meat, well seasoned and moistened with stock. Roll up like jelly roll, brush over with milk and bake in moderate oven. Serve with tomato sauce.

Potato Cake.

Cream one cupful butter and two cupfuls sugar, add three or four eggs, one cupful mashed potatoes, one-half cupful milk, one-half cupful grated chocolate (or less), two and one-quarter cupfuls flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls baking powder, one teaspoonful cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful each of cloves and nutmeg. Lastly add one cupful chopped walnuts or any other nut meats.

Refurbishing the Kitchen.

The kitchen should have a fresh coat of paint each season and should be kept light in color. A half worn linoleum can be freshened by giving it a coat of paint or varnish, and it will also last much longer if a layer of soft padding of some kind is put under it before it is tacked down. This is especially necessary if the kitchen floor is rough or uneven.

Care of Table Linen.

Keep in mind the fact that linens will last longer if they are folded a different way each time laundered. Take a napkin, for example. One time it can be folded in four sections, the next time into triangles and the next time in three sections.

Oysters on Toast.

Broil or fry oysters and lay them on buttered toast. Salt and pepper. Pour over them a cupful of hot, rich cream. Keep hot until eaten.

Petrograd, April 6.—As the war continues the women on the border suffer the horrors of war and the mothers and orphans left at home are the ones who suffer most. In America are many mothers and daughters, who were left penniless by the war of the Rebellion, but their suffering are as nothing to the women and children left as widows and orphans of the soldiers who have fought and bled for their country in Europe.

Many a mother and daughter have reason to be thankful to Dr. Pierce for relief from suffering and the cure of those weaknesses of their sex, because of his "Favorite Prescription." This tonic, which is strictly a temperance medicine, has cured thousands of those weaknesses, headaches, nervousness, backaches, which are the outward manifestations of disease in women. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription prepared only from nature's roots and herbs with no alcohol to falsely stimulate and no narcotics to wreck the nerves. It banishes pain, headache, backache, low spirits, hot flashes, dragging-down sensation, worry and sleeplessness surely and without loss of time.

What Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for thousands it will do for you. It's not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Get it this very day at any medicine dealers in either liquid or tablets form.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.—Advt.

YOUNG FOLKS' CORNER

A Good History Game.

Count the number of persons to take part in the game, then prepare two slips of blank paper for each player, except Sarah and Dan who are the conductors. The conductors write on these slips the names of as many states as there are players. On the other slips the capitals of these states are written. Having written the required number, have the other players leave the room. Then Sarah and Dan arrange the vacant chairs to suit themselves, in two rows or in a circle. The conductor having the names of the states places one on the bottom of each chair, the written side down. The other conductor holds the slips containing the names of the capitals.

Then the players are invited in and each seats himself in a chair holding one of the slips. This must be done without trying to see the names written on the scraps of paper. When all are seated the conductor having the "capital slips," passes along letting each one draw from her hand. Then each one raises and examines the name of the state on which he has been sitting. Those who have drawn the names of the capital of their states, shall remain seated. The unlucky players return the slips to their conductors and again leave the room. The "state slips" are then mixed up and placed on the unoccupied chairs, the players called in, and the game proceeds as before.

The game is continued until all are allowed to remain. Then each in his turn may be required to tell some of the early history of his state slip and relate some interesting facts about his capital. Failing to do this he must pay the conductors a forfeit, and much amusement may follow in redeeming the pawns.

The game may be played without forfeits if preferred, and some different test of the history or geography of the states required, as giving boundaries, naming principal rivers and mountains or mentioning the leading products.

A Cake Baking Hint.

Raisins and currants have a habit of sinking to the bottom of a loaf of cake, no matter if they have been floured or some other means taken to prevent their doing so. At last, it is said, a way has really been found which will make them stay where they ought to. Put the raisins and currants in a dish and set it on the back of the stove; stir them occasionally and see that they do not burn. When thoroughly heated add them to the batter.

CULTURE.

Culture looks beyond machinery. Culture hates hatred. Culture has one great passion—the passion for sweetness and light. It has one even yet greater, the passion for making them all prevail. It is not satisfied till we all come to a perfect man. It knows that the sweetness and light of the few must be imperfect until the raw and unkindly masses of humanity are touched with sweetness and light.—Matthew Arnold.

$100 REWARD. $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. Absolute Zero.

The absolute zero of temperature, absence of all heat energy, is 461 degrees below the zero of Fahrenheit. Liquid helium is 454 below, liquid air 310, and liquid hydrogen 418. These degrees of cold are beyond comprehension. And many new properties of matter have been discovered by subjecting various phases—elements—to these low temperatures. Thus, it is a theory that chemically pure metals would allow all of a current of electricity to pass without resistance—that is, the more nearly the absolute purity and absolute cold are reached the less the observed and measured resistance to flow of electricity.—New York American.

Meat Rolls.

Sift two cupfuls of flour twice with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one of salt and chop into this two tablespoonfuls of lard and one of butter. Moisten with milk (about one-half cup) and roll out one-half inch thick into oblong shape. Spread with chopped, cooked meat, well seasoned and moistened with stock. Roll up like jelly roll, brush over with milk and bake in moderate oven. Serve with tomato sauce.

Potato Cake.

Cream one cupful butter and two cupfuls sugar, add three or four eggs, one cupful mashed potatoes, one-half cupful milk, one-half cupful grated chocolate (or less), two and one-quarter cupfuls flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls baking powder, one teaspoonful cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful each of cloves and nutmeg. Lastly add one cupful chopped walnuts or any other nut meats.

Refurbishing the Kitchen.

The kitchen should have a fresh coat of paint each season and should be kept light in color. A half worn linoleum can be freshened by giving it a coat of paint or varnish, and it will also last much longer if a layer of soft padding of some kind is put under it before it is tacked down. This is especially necessary if the kitchen floor is rough or uneven.

Care of Table Linen.

Keep in mind the fact that linens will last longer if they are folded a different way each time laundered. Take a napkin, for example. One time it can be folded in four sections, the next time into triangles and the next time in three sections.

Oysters on Toast.

Broil or fry oysters and lay them on buttered toast. Salt and pepper. Pour over them a cupful of hot, rich cream. Keep hot until eaten.

Petrograd, April 6.—As the war continues the women on the border suffer the horrors of war and the mothers and orphans left at home are the ones who suffer most. In America are many mothers and daughters, who were left penniless by the war of the Rebellion, but their suffering are as nothing to the women and children left as widows and orphans of the soldiers who have fought and bled for their country in Europe.

Many a mother and daughter have reason to be thankful to Dr. Pierce for relief from suffering and the cure of those weaknesses of their sex, because of his "Favorite Prescription."

This tonic, which is strictly a temperance medicine, has cured thousands of those weaknesses, headaches, nervousness, backaches, which are the outward manifestations of disease in women. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription speedily causes all womanly troubles to disappear—compels the organs to properly perform their natural functions, corrects displacements, overcomes irregularities, removes pain and misery at certain times and brings back health and strength to nervous, irritable and exhausted women.

It is a wonderful prescription prepared only from nature's roots and herbs with no alcohol to falsely stimulate and no narcotics to wreck the nerves. It banishes pain, headache, backache, low spirits, hot flashes, dragging-down sensation, worry and sleeplessness surely and without loss of time.

What Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for thousands it will do for you. It's not a secret remedy for its ingredients are printed on wrapper. Get it this very day at any medicine dealers in either liquid or tablet form.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.—Advt.

Rheumatism Yields Quickly to Sloan's

You can't prevent an attack of Rheumatism from coming on, but you can stop it almost immediately. Sloan's Liniment gently applied to the sore joint or muscle penetrates in a few minutes to the inflamed spot that causes the pain. It soothes the hot, tender, swollen feeling, and in a very short time brings a relief that is almost unbelievable until you experience it. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25c. of any druggist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, lumbago, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.—tts.

noon, April 13th

EXHIBIT AND RECOMMEND KIND

Talks on Potato Growing, Marketing, Control of Disease and Demonstrations in the Car

A campaign for more and better potatoes and for the better marketing of potatoes is being carried on in Minnesota. It is being promoted by the Minnesota Agricultural college, the Minnesota Potato Growers' association, and the Northern Pacific Railway company. The men on the firing line will visit Motley the afternoon of Tuesday, April 13, arriving at 12:45 p. m.

The campaigners in the field are C. E. Brown, of the agricultural extension division, University of Minnesota, a man who knows potato growing and potato marketing through and through, and E. C. Stakeman, of the department of agriculture, University of Minnesota, who has made a most careful study of potato diseases and their control.

These two men travel in a car, provided by the Northern Pacific Railway company, in which are exhibits of types and varieties of potatoes recommended by the Minnesota Potato Growers' association, also displays of growing plants and tubers affected with the common potato diseases, and the equipment necessary for the control of such diseases. Talks on potato growing, potato marketing, and the control of diseases, with demonstrations will be given in the car.

From Motley the car will go to Wadena.

Every farmer in the vicinity of Motley should take this opportunity to study the potato problem before putting in this season's crop.

HOW IT FEELS

By Phil Rader.

Copyright 1915 by United Press

Phil D. Rader.

London—How it feels to kill a man is something that I can adequately describe. There are millions of men in Europe who have been fighting during the last year, but I venture to say that not one of them could faithfully detail his emotions on first killing a human life.

After you see your victim drop you feel a sense of triumph. Then the ages of training in the Ten Commandments come to the front and you feel like a murderer. Then you want to run around your mates and tell them the circumstances of the killing and get them to tell you that you did the right thing.

My experiences were like that. I was standing beside my lieutenant one day. He had fastened a small mirror to a twig and was looking at the German trench, when suddenly he said: "Get your gun. A Boche has come out of his trench." I ran down the trench, got my gun back to the port hole. I was so excited I could hardly aim. Through the hole I saw a German standing on the edge of the trench. He had been carrying a huge board and had rested it against his back when he tried to light his pipe.

"Get him! Get him!" said the lieutenant. The German struck another match and merely looked contemptuously at the spot where the bullet had whistled past him. He was only 45 feet from me, but through a loophole I could see a part of his body and I wanted to hit low, if possible. I aimed again. He wheeled around and backed in a circle like a drunken man trying to keep his balance. Then he threw up both hands and fell forward on his face.

I turned around to look at the lieutenant. He had moved away. I was proud. Then a wave of remorse came over me. It was the "thou shalt not kill" that is buried deep in every sane man's mind and heart. "I got a German," I shouted to a soldier nearby. I told him the man had been standing there, holding a board. "Did he have a rifle?" asked the soldier.

"Why, no," I said. "And you shot an unarmed man." "I had direct orders," I answered. I felt like a dog. It seemed to me that I must find some human being who would say I had done right. I told another soldier about it.

"Served him right," said the soldier. "He'd have done the same thing to you."

These were splendid words for me. I had slouched along the trench before I met him. After that I held up my head. But the two feelings, the pride and the remorse, fought in my mind.

At last I told it all to an old Legion soldier. "My boy," he said, "It's war. Could you have refused to shoot under the eye of the lieutenant? War is killing and that's all there is to it. Suppose every soldier in the French line were to obey his own instincts about killing. None of the enemy would die. The French have brought you here to kill. You are ordered to kill and you must kill, whenever you can."

Technically I had done wrong, because all war is technically wrong. I sat behind a machine gun one day soon after that and killed 11 Germans who had built a barricade in some nearby trees. They were shooting at us and I felt much better about killing them than I did about the single soldier.

And then later again in the bicycle seat of the machine gun and at the rate of 700 shots a minute I fired at advancing columns of Germans in close formations and watched them drop and spasm. They were coming to kill us if they could. If I failed to kill them, I failed under the rules of the war game. A terrible sense of responsibility filled me; the rattle of that gun was sweeter and grander to me than hallelujahs. I knew what it meant to be drunk with killing. Other machine guns were going too, but I felt at the time as if mine was the only one. The formation was smashed, the dead and wounded strewn the hillsides.

But that night after I had crawled into my mudhole but to sleep I did not dare to think of all the women and children whose hearts had been hit by that machine gun fire. I had joined the French foreign legion expecting to be made a member of the flying corps. Instead I had found my way to the trenches where killing was our only job, brutal and out and out killing, with little science and less chivalry.

When my chance came I got out. Of the 1,500 men I had started out with only 385 remained and we had been in the trenches only 47 days. I quit because it was a living hell. Everybody else would have quit too. I know they would. "I lived with them and slept and ate with them and talked with them and know they would all have quit, if they could. And so would every other man in all the great armies in this great war. When the word runs along the line some happy day when the war is over I don't want to have to write the story of how the men felt. Only God will be able to measure the joy, no human being will be able to tell it.

FAST BATTERY SECURED

Tower and Theigs Will Play With the Verndale Team This Year

Playing Manager Pettit of the Verndale ball team announces that he has signed up "Bungo" Towers to pitch for the team this year and that Theigs, who was the other half of the battery last year, will be found in his old position against this year. Tower was here Monday of this week and came to satisfactory terms with the local manager. It was thought at one time that Theigs would be lost to the team this year on account of Long Prairie having a team, but Manager Pettit, says he has heard from the catcher, who has expressed a desire to play with Verndale again this season. With these two players Verndale will be assured a first class battery and one able to travel with the best in this part of the state and with another good team behind them the fans can look for some fast baseball again this summer.

About all that remains now is for the weather to warm up so that the boys can get the kinks out of their arms and they will be ready for all comers. Manager Pettit will now commence negotiations for games with the surrounding towns and in a few weeks more the season will be on in earnest.—Verndale Sun.

BASEBALL CURVES

Cliff Blankenship, formerly of Missoula, Mont., is known to Brainerd people as the manager who first gave Leslie Bush an opening in organized baseball. Blankenship is a former Washington catcher and is now manager of the Salt Lake City, Utah, team of the Pacific Coast league and has six nations represented on his pitching staff. Blankenship thinks his forces should easily be able to conquer the Allies, no other team in the league being represented by more than four nations. LaRoy is an Indian, Johnny Williams, Hawaiian; Frank Arrelanes, Spaniard; Apu, Chinese; Yingling, former Cleveland player, is German, despite a Chinese name, while Malarkey and Toner are Irish.

O. H. Johnson, proprietor of the Ransford hotel and a member of the board of directors of the Brainerd Athletic club which takes over baseball this year, is an old pitcher who in years past played in a southern league. He had all the curves expied with lots of brainy matter and held his own in the box against all comers.

An Arctic Bunk House.

A "bunk" house is an arctic hotel made of logs, with moss chinks, a dirt roof and a dirt floor. A great sheet iron stove keeps it warm. Two rows of bunks covered with grass or brush extend along the walls. The old fashioned string and latch hold the whip sawed door closed, and there is a place to cook the meals. To stay overnight costs a dollar.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGECuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. to Start Stripping Operations in Two Weeks

BUTLER BROTHERS TO STRIP

Brainerd-Cuyuna Mine in Brainerd
Has its Shaft Down 135 Feet, to Drift Soon

The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. property near the Pennington pit mine will be made into a pit mine, stripping operations to start in about two weeks. The property is situated in the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 10 township 46, range 29 and a lease of the same was taken by Clement D. Quinn and associates of Virginia. Butler Brothers, of St. Paul, will do the stripping and two steam shovels will probably be set at work.

The Rowe pit mine at Riverton, belonging to the Pittsburgh Steel Ore Co., has a pump and sand sucker at work. This is one of their three units. Water is being pumped out of the pit. The Hill Crest pit mine has received a sand pump and other equipment. This new mine is situated immediately west of Ironton. At the Armour No. 1 mine the pit is being rapidly dug by the Pennington people, one shovel being at work. At the Thompson pit mine of the Inland Steel Co. a shovel is at work. All pits are expected to ship heavily this season.

The Seaford Exploration Co. has a drill at work in section 2, township 46, range 28 near Cedar Lake and in section 29, township 47, range 29 near the village of Manganese. At the Iron Mountain mine near by the new pump is being installed and the shaft house completed. The mine will ship on open contracts. It is an easy hoist, only about 65 feet. The drift is 52 feet in ore. Capt. M. B. Roscoria is in charge.

Dave O'Brien and associates of Duluth and Minneapolis, are organizing a new land and exploration company. The Kennedy and Armour No. 2 underground mines are hoisting steadily and stockpiling. The Wilcox mine is hoisting ore while crosscutting and is shipping the same steadily. The ore is handled by the Northern Pacific railway.

At Barrows the Brainerd Mining Co. drill now operating near the east line of the Barrows Mining Co. property has proved up a large body of good ore and it is the opinion that this same ore line extends through the Barrows Mining Co. property. The Barrows Mining Co. are now negotiating for the purchase of machinery and material for the concrete shaft which they intend to sink on this property work starting about the first of May.

It is expected that news of considerable importance to Ironton and vicinity will be announced in the near future by the Cuyuna-Sultana officials. This property has received a great deal of attention from prominent operators on account of its low phosphorus manganese deposit. The property also contains, along its southern boundary, an extensive area of iron ore. The mine is unique in that there is a distinct difference in the characteristics of these two ore bodies, as to the structure, mineral content, etc.

Ore is being found in every drill hole by the Great Northern Exploration Co., which controls the east Campbell forty and now it looks as though the Cuyuna-Sultana was entirely surrounded by ore bodies.

The Inland Steel Co. will put in a small concentrator near Crosby and Ironton, which will be used to test ores. Electric current will be bought from the Cuyuna Range Power Co. The Rowe pit mine is also concluding preparations to build a large concentrator.

The Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd, about a mile from the postoffice, has its shaft down over 135 feet. Eighteen men are at work. Drifting will be done at the 150 foot level which will now be reached in a very short time. About 200 gallons of water are pumped every minute. This is not a heavy flow for that depth. Under Supt. Andrew Johnson remarkable progress has been made. D. C. Peacock, of Brainerd, has general supervision over sinking operations.

John R. Harrington, of Hibbing, has his drill outfit on the ground and will soon start exploring the George W. Holland tracts bequeathed to the city. He will start near the Northern Pacific railway shops.

A release of option has been filed by the Cole & McDonald Exploration Co. to James M. Elder, of Brainerd, the latter owning the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter, lot 3 of section 23, township 47, range 29. At Cedar Lake the Seaford Exploration Co. is drilling land of the Manganese Iron Ore. Ore was struck in hole No. 1 at 123 feet. The drilling on the Duluth Land & Timber Co.'s land adjoining the village of Manganese is progressing and the drill is now working in the fifth hole.

The Duluth-Brainerd Iron Co., according to a letter received from Otto J. Wendlandt, its president, is now in a fair way of being refinanced by Minneapolis parties who will endeavor to make the property a shipping mine and are willing to invest sufficient monies to pay off all indebtedness as well as putting in enough money to operate the property.

The Iron Trade Review states that war orders of tremendous size are pending, including guns, ammunition and other supplies. Orders for machine tools by domestic manufacturers who have booked contracts for war material are very heavy and include 500 machines, mostly lathes, ordered by the American Locomotive Co., to make shrapnel shells, for the Russian government. Numerous small orders for machine tools, including some from railroads, have been placed and many others are pending. Nearly all the manufacturers have advanced their prices.

The United States Steel Corporation is now operating at slightly better than 70 per cent of ingot capacity. Nearly all companies report March business shows a very comfortable increase in mill orders, as compared with February. Warehouse business is also improved.

Cream Cake.

Inquiries among a large number of women using "The Cook's Book" showed this to be their favorite cake recipe. It is easy to make, certain to turn out well if K C Baking Powder is used, and may be put together with almost any filling or icing.

K C Cream Cake

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

One-half cup butter; 2 cup sugar; yolks of 2 eggs, beaten light; 1½ cups sifted flour; 2 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; ½ cup cold water; whites of 2 eggs, beaten dry.

Cream the butter; add the sugar, yolks of eggs and water; then the flour, sifted three times with the baking powder; lastly the whites of eggs. Bake in two or three layers; put these together with cream filling, and dredge the top with confectioner's sugar.

Cream Filling

One-fourth cup sifted flour; ¼ teaspoonful salt; 1 cup hot milk; 1 egg, beaten light; 1 cup sugar; 1 teaspoonful vanilla extract; 1 ounce chocolate.

Mix flour and salt with a very little cold milk; stir into the hot milk and cook ten minutes; add the chocolate and stir until it is melted and evenly blended with the flour mixture, then beat in the egg mixed with the sugar, and lastly the vanilla.

You need the K C Cook's Book, containing this and 89 other delicious recipes—sent free upon receipt of the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder. Send to the Jaques Mfg. Co., Chicago.

CAMPAIGN FOR MORE POTATOES

Motley Will be Visited by Experts in Special Car on Tuesday Afternoon, April 13th

EXHIBIT AND RECOMMEND KIND

Talks on Potato Growing, Marketing, Control of Disease and Demonstrations in the Car

A campaign for more and better potatoes and for the better marketing of potatoes is being carried on in Minnesota. It is being promoted by the Minnesota Agricultural college, the Minnesota Potato Growers' association, and the Northern Pacific Railway company. The men on the firing line will visit Motley the afternoon of Tuesday, April 13, arriving at 12:45 p. m.

The campaigners in the field are C. E. Brown, of the agricultural extension division, University of Minnesota, a man who knows potato growing and potato marketing through and through, and E. C. Stakman, of the department of agriculture, University of Minnesota, who has made a most careful study of potato diseases and their control.

These two men travel in a car, provided by the Northern Pacific Railway company, in which are exhibits of types and varieties of potatoes recommended by the Minnesota Potato Growers' association, also displays of growing plants and tubers affected with the common potato diseases, and the equipment necessary for the control of such diseases. Talks on potato growing, potato marketing, and the control of diseases, with demonstrations will be given in the car.

From Motley the car will go to Wadena.

Every farmer in the vicinity of Motley should take this opportunity to study the potato problem before putting in this season's crop.

HOW IT FEELS

By Phil Rader.

Copyright 1915 by United Press

Phil D. Rader.

London—How it feels to kill a man is something that I can adequately describe. There are millions of men in Europe who have been fighting during the last year, but I venture to say that not one of them could faithfully detail his emotions on first killing a human life.

After you see your victim drop you feel a sense of triumph. Then the ages of training in the Ten Commandments come to the front and you feel like a murderer. Then you want to run around your mates and tell them the circumstances of the killing and get them to tell you that you did the right thing.

My experiences were like that. I was standing beside my lieutenant one day. He had fastened a small mirror to a twig and was looking at the German trench, when suddenly he said: "Get your gun. A Boche has come out of his trench." I ran down the trench, got my gun back to the port hole. I was so excited I could hardly aim. Through the hole I saw a German standing on the edge of the trench. He had been carrying a huge board and had rested it against his back when he tried to fight his pipe.

"Get him! Get him!" said the lieutenant. The German struck another match and merely looked contemptuously at the spot where the bullet had whistled past him. He was only 45 feet from me, but through a loophole I could see a part of his body and I wanted to hit low, if possible I aimed again. He wheeled around and backed in a circle like a drunken man trying to keep his balance. Then he threw up both hands and fell forward on his face.

I turned around to look at the lieutenant. He had moved away. I was proud. Then a wave of remorse came over me. It was the "thou shalt not kill" that buried deep in every sane man's mind and heart. "I got a German," I shouted to a soldier nearby. I told him the man had been standing there, holding a board. "Did he have a rifle?" asked the soldier.

"Why, no," I said.

"And you shot an unarmed man?" "I had direct orders," I answered. I felt like a dog. It seemed to me that I must find some human being who would say I had done right. I told another soldier about it.

"Served him right," said the soldier. "He'd have done the same thing to you."

There were splendid words for me. I had slouched along the trench before I met him. After that I held up my head. But the two feelings, the pride and the remorse, fought in my mind.

At last I told it all to an old Legion soldier.

"My boy," he said, "It's war. Could you have refused to shoot under the eye of the lieutenant? War is killing and that's all there is to it. Suppose every soldier in the French line were to obey his own instincts about killing. None of the enemy would die. The French have brought you here to kill. You are ordered to kill and you must kill, whenever you can."

Technically I had done wrong, because all war is technically wrong. I sat behind a machine gun one day soon after that and killed 11 Germans who had built a barricade in some nearby trees. They were shooting at us and I felt much better about killing them than I did about the single soldier.

And then later again in the bicycle seat of the machine gun and at the rate of 700 shots a minute I fired at advancing columns of Germans in close formations and watched them drop and spasm. They were coming to kill us if they could. If I failed to kill them, I failed under the rules of the war game. A terrible sense of responsibility filled me; the rattle of that gun was sweeter and grander to me than hallelujahs. I knew what it meant to be drunk with killing. Other machine guns were going too, but I felt at the time as if mine was the only one. The formation was smashed, the dead and wounded strewn the hillside.

But that night after I had crawled into my mudhole hut to sleep I did not dare to think of all the women and children whose hearts had been hit by that machine gun fire. I had joined the French foreign legion expecting to be made a member of the flying corps. Instead I had found my way to the trenches where killing was our only job, brutal out and out killing, with little science and less chivalry.

When my chance came I got out. Of the 1,500 men I had started out with only 385 remained and we had been in the trenches only 47 days. I quit because it was a living hell. Everybody else would have quit too. I know they would. I lived with them and slept and ate with them and talked with them and know they would all have quit, if they could. And so would every other man in all the great armies in this great war. When the word runs along the line some happy day when the war is over I don't want to have to write the story of how the men felt. Only God will be able to measure the joy, no human being will be able to tell it.

FAST BATTERY SECURED

Tower and Theigs Will Play With the Verdale Team This Year

Playing Manager Pettit of the Verdale ball team announces that he has signed up "Bungo" Towers to pitch for the team this year and that Theigs, who was the other half of the battery last year, will be found in his old position against this year. Tower was here Monday of this week and came to satisfactory terms with the local manager. It was thought at one time that Theigs would be lost to the team this year on account of Long Prairie having a team, but Manager Pettit, says he has heard from the catcher, who has expressed a desire to play with Verdale again this season. With these two players Verdale will be assured a first class battery and one able to travel with the best in this part of the state and with another good team behind them the fans can look for some fast baseball again this summer.

About all that remains now is for the weather to warm up so that the boys can get the kinks out of their arms and they will be ready for all comers. Manager Pettit will now commence negotiations for games with the surrounding towns and in a few weeks more the season will be on in earnest.—Verdale Sun.

BASEBALL CURVES

Cliff Blankenship, formerly of Missoula, Mont., is known to Brainerd people as the manager who first gave Leslie Bush an opening in organized baseball. Blankenship is a former Washington catcher and is now manager of the Salt Lake City, Utah, team of the Pacific Coast league and has six nations represented on his pitching staff. Blankenship thinks his forces should easily be able to conquer the Allies, no other team in the league being represented by more than four nations. LaRoy is an Indian, Johnny Williams, Hawaiian; Frank Arrelanes, Spaniard; Apu, Chinese; Yingling, former Cleveland player, is German, despite a Chinese name, while Malarkey and Toner are Irish.

O. H. Johnson, proprietor of the Ransford hotel and a member of the board of directors of the Brainerd Athletic club which takes over baseball this year, is an old pitcher who in years past played in a southern league. He had all the curves expied with lots of brainy matter and held his own in the box against all comers.

An Arctic Bunk House.

A "bunk" house is an arctic hotel made of logs, with moss chinks, a dirt roof and a dirt floor. A great sheet iron stove keeps it warm. Two rows of bunks covered with grass or brush extend along the walls. The old fashioned string and latch hold the whip sawed door closed, and there is a place to cook the meals. To stay overnight costs a dollar.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. to Start Stripping Operations in Two Weeks

BUTLER BROTHERS TO STRIP

Brainerd-Cuyuna Mine in Brainerd Has its Shaft Down 135 Feet, to Drift Soon

The Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. property near the Pennington pit mine will be made into a pit mine, stripping operations to start in about two weeks. The property is situated in the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter, the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 10 township 46, range 29 and a lease of the same was taken by Clement D. Quinn and associates of Virginia. Butler Brothers, of St. Paul, will do the stripping and two steam shovels will probably be set at work.

The Rowe pit mine at Riverton, belonging to the Pittsburgh Steel Ore Co., has a pump and sand sucker at work. This is one of their three units. Water is being pumped out of the pit. The Hill Crest pit mine has received a sand pump and other equipment. This new mine is situated immediately west of Ironton. At the Armour No. 1 mine the pit is being rapidly dug by the Pennington people, one shovel being at work. At the Thompson pit mine of the Inland Steel Co. a shovel is at work. All pits are expected to ship heavily this season.

The Seafield Exploration Co. has a drill at work in section 2, township 46, range 28 near Cedar Lake and in section 29, township 47, range 29 near the village of Manganese. At the Iron Mountain mine near by the new pump is being installed and the shaft house completed. The mine will ship on open contracts. It is an easy hoist, only about 65 feet. The drift is 52 feet in ore. Capt. M. B. Roscoria is in charge.

Dave O'Brien and associates of Duluth and Minneapolis, are organizing a new land and exploration company. The Kennedy and Armour No. 2 underground mines are hoisting steadily and stockpiling. The Wilcox mine is hoisting ore while crosscutting and is shipping the same steadily. The ore is handled by the Northern Pacific railway.

At Barrows the Brainerd Mining Co. drill now operating near the east line of the Barrows Mining Co. property has proved up a large body of good ore and it is the opinion that this same ore line extends through the Barrows Mining Co. property. The Barrows Mining Co. are now negotiating for the purchase of machinery and material for the concrete shaft which they intend to sink on this property work starting about the first of May.

It is expected that news of considerable importance to Ironton and vicinity will be announced in the near future by the Cuyuna-Sultana officials. This property has received a great deal of attention from prominent operators on account of its low phosphorus manganese deposit. The property also contains, along its southern boundary, an extensive area of iron ore. The mine is unique in that there is a distinct difference in the characteristics of these two ore-bodies, as to the structure, mineral content, etc.

Ore is being found in every drill hole by the Great Northern Exploration Co., which controls the east Campbell forty and now it looks as though the Cuyuna-Sultana was entirely surrounded by ore bodies.

The Inland Steel Co. will put in a small concentrator near Crosby and Ironton, which will be used to test ores. Electric current will be bought from the Cuyuna Range Power Co. The Rowe pit mine is also concluding preparations to build a large concentrator.

The Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city limits of Brainerd, about a mile from the postoffice, has its shaft down over 135 feet. Eighteen men are at work. Drifting will be done at the 160 foot level which will now be reached in a very short time. About 200 gallons of water are pumped every minute. This is not a heavy flow for that depth. Under Supt. Andrew Johnson remarkable progress has been made. D. C. Peacock, of Brainerd, has general supervision over sinking operations.

John R. Harrington, of Hibbing, has his drill outfit on the ground and will soon start exploring the George W. Holland tracts bequeathed to the city. He will start near the Northern Pacific railway shops.

A release of option has been filed by the Cole & McDonald Exploration Co. to James M. Elder, of Brainerd, the latter owning the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter, lot 3 of section 23, township 47, range 29. At Cedar Lake the Seafield Exploration Co. is drilling land of the Manganese Iron Co. Ore was struck in hole No. 1 at 123 feet. The drilling on the Duluth Land & Timber Co.'s land adjoining the village of Manganese is progressing and the drill is now working in the fifth hole.

The Duluth-Brainerd Iron Co., according to a letter received from Otto J. Wendlandt, its president, is now in a fair way of being refinanced by Minneapolis parties who will endeavor to make the property a shipping mine and are willing to invest sufficient monies to pay off all indebtedness as well as putting in enough money to operate the property.

The Iron Trade Review states that war orders of tremendous size are pending, including guns, ammunition and other supplies. Orders for machine tools by domestic manufacturers who have booked contracts for war material are very heavy and include 500 machines, mostly lathes, ordered by the American Locomotive Co., to make shrapnel shells, for the Russian government. Numerous small orders for machine tools, including some from railroads, have been placed and many others are pending. Nearly all the manufacturers have advanced their prices.

The United States Steel Corporation is now operating at slightly better than 70 per cent of ingot capacity. Nearly all companies report March business shows a very comfortable increase in mill orders, as compared with February. Warehouse business is also improved.

Cream Cake

Inquiries among a large number of women using "The Cook's Book" showed this to be their favorite cake recipe. It is easy to make, certain to turn out well if K C Baking Powder is used, and may be put together with almost any filling or icing.

K C Cream Cake

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

One-half cup butter; 1 cup sugar; yolks of 2 eggs, beaten light; 12 cups sifted flour; 2 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; 1 cup cold water; whites of 2 eggs, beaten dry.

Cream the butter; add the sugar, yolks of eggs and water; then the flour, sifted three times with the baking powder; lastly the whites of eggs. Bake in two or three layers; put these together with cream filling, and dredge the top with confectioner's sugar.

Cream Filling

One-fourth cup sifted flour; 1 teaspoonful salt; 1 cup hot milk; 1 egg, beaten light; 1 cup sugar; 1 teaspoonful vanilla extract; 1 ounce chocolate.

Mix flour and salt with a very little cold milk; stir into the hot milk and cook ten minutes; add the chocolate and stir until it is melted and evenly blended with the flour mixture, then beat in the egg mixed with the sugar, and lastly the vanilla.

You need the K C Cook's Book, containing this and 89 other delicious recipes—sent free upon receipt of the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder. Send to the James Mfg. Co., Chicago.

SEWER CONTRACT WAS AWARDED

Ilstrup & Olson of Minneapolis, Successful Bidders at Council Meeting Last Night

POLICE MATTERS ARE AIRD

Payroll of Police Allowed With the Exception of Officer Scott and Special Officer Evans

At the council meeting Monday evening, attended by all the aldermen, Ilstrup & Olson, of Minneapolis, were awarded the contract to construct sewers on South Ninth street and East Brainerd. Their bid was $89 a foot for later B-2, district No. 4, and $1.01 a foot for lateral A-5, district No. 5, situated in East Brainerd. Figures of all the bidders were:

	B-2	A-5
F. A. Glass	$1.19	$1.48
Ilstrup & Olson	.89	1.01
Pastoret Cons. Co.	1.27	1.36
Grand Forks C. Co.	1.46	1.54
Sherlund Co.	1.39	1.45

L. G. Foley, of the state board of control spoke to the council regarding his inspection of the new city jail and said it was a model one, interior and exterior, and one which gave the taxpayers full value for every penny spent and was one of the finest in the state.

Police matters were aired. The bill for the police pay roll came up, amounting to $349.35. Objections were made to allowing the bills of Officer Albert Scott and A. E. Evans, a special policeman recently appointed by Mayor R. A. Henning.

Upon the opinion given by City Attorney W. H. Crowell as follows: "O. K. as to all bills above set forth except the bill of Albert Scott ($50.80) and A. E. Evans ($15.81) which two last mentioned bills I hold to be unauthorized and illegal," the bills were laid over to the Friday evening meeting, April 9.

On the aye and may vote to allow the bills of Evans, the motion failed to carry, the vote standing 4 ayes, Aldermen Anderson, Betzold, Haake and Gallupe; 5 nays, Aldermen Hagberg, Stallman, Smith, Hess and President Lagerquist. Alderman Peterson asked to be excused.

It was brought up that a damage suit was in prospect on account of the alleged illegal arrest made by special Officer A. E. Evans, who had seen a week's service.

Evans' appointment had not yet been confirmed by the council and payment of the bill would be equivalent to confirmation of his appointment and in such event it was said at the council meeting, the city might be liable to defend a damage suit on account of the alleged illegal arrest.

Officer Evans said he had received a telephone call that a man was raising a disturbance in a house. People would have made a greater "holier" had he let the man alone, said he, and accordingly to protect himself he arrested him and lodged him in jail that night.

Neil D. Brooks appointment as a special policeman at the depot was confirmed.

J. H. Northrup, speaking in favor of sewers, quoted the letter he had received from Dr. R. A. Beise, president of the local board of health. Dr. Beise wrote: "You have asked me to give my opinion in regard to the effect on the health of families who have basements filled or partially filled with water during certain times of the year and the remedy for such an evil, if it can be considered an evil. Aside from the inconvenience of having a basement wet or filled or partially filled during certain times of the year, it is decidedly unhealthy and obnoxious. Many diseases such as pneumonia, rheumatism can be traced to these causes. As to the remedy, sewers and sewer connections seems to be the only remedy."

Mayor Henning had a communication regarding the saloon licenses of W. T. Larabee and Wm. Wilson.

A petition signed by H. Tureotte, Louis F. Hohman, Louis Hohman, Sr., Chas. Ellison, J. L. Hartell and Geo. Donant stated they were residents of block 219 in the First addition to Brainerd and that they wished to be annexed to and made a part of sewer district No. 7. It was voted to conform to the wishes of the petitioners.

Inasmuch as there were but a few meetings left for the present council the resignation of Alderman F. S. Gallupe was not accepted. The vote stood 6 ayes: Aldermen Hagberg, Stallman, Smith, Hess, Peterson and President Lagerquist. Three nays were recorded, Aldermen Anderson, Betzold and Haake. Alderman Gallupe did not vote.

The police report showed 16 arrests in the month, 7 state cases, 9 city cases, 8 committed without fines, 3 sentences suspended, 2 discharged after hearing, 9 drunks, 1 vagrant, 1 case of non-support. Fines collected amounted to $55.

The street commissioner's report showed $19.97 expended for labor covering general street work and flushing sewers.

Petitioners including John Johnson, Aug. Peterson, Albert R. Cass, Mrs. Louisa McNaughton, Mrs. Alice Britton and W. L. Curtis asked that an alley be established in block 185 of the original town of Brainerd. Each signer agreed to dedicate a quit claim deed to the city of seven feet from the rear end of his property for the alley. The petition was placed on file.

The city clerk's report of receipts and disbursements for March, 1915, showed:

ARRANGE FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Representative of the Vawter System in the City Completing Arrangements for Meeting

ORATORS OF QUALITY ON LIST

The Chautauqua will be Held About the Middle of August but Exact Date Not Yet Determined

Mr. H. A. Hedges, field superintendent of the Vawter Chautauqua System, has been in the city getting acquainted with our people and completing arrangements for the Chautauqua to be held here this summer. Mr. Hedges takes the place of Mr. O. E. Behymer, resigned, who had charge last year.

While here Mr. Hedges completed the organization of the local forces, and the officers of the Chautauqua committee for the ensuing year will be as follows: D. E. Whitney, president; S. E. Hansing, secretary; H. E. Kunder, treasurer.

Mr. Hedges carries with him a case of photographs showing likenesses of the numerous people booked to appear here on the program. He is enthusiastic about the program and declares that it has been materially strengthened in many ways and that the present line-up leaves nothing to be desired.

There will be five musical organizations, one for each day. Mr. Hedges says these have all been selected with special reference to their fitness for the places they are to fill. The companies are: The Lawson Trio, The J. Walter Wilson Co., The Illinois Sextette, The Avon Sketch Club, and the Boucher Opera Co.

The speakers on the program include Congressman Lenroot, of Wisconsin; C. A. Payne; Alva M. Reitzel; Preston Bradley; C. H. Plattenburg, and Hazel Kepford.

The Mendelssohn Sextette is made up of six talented and charming young ladies who sing and play, and do skits and stunts galore. The Lawson Trio specializes with flute, violin and voice and renders programs of great variety and beauty. The Wilson Company is a combination of music and make-up with a great abundance of fine entertainment features.

The Avon Sketch club is one of those artistic organizations that takes pride in its ability to handle costumed effects and combine play acting with music, both instrumental and vocal to produce the highest results in musical entertainment for the masses. The Boucher Opera Company will give our people a touch of city life by rendering in correct and splendid fashion selections from popular opera scenes. Donald Boucher himself will appear with the company.

Congressman Lenroot is the ranking public man of Wisconsin next to La Follette. He is a seasoned law-maker and stands high at Washington. The Chicago Tribune of January 31st published a leading article urging Lenroot as a presidential prospect for 1916.

Chas. A. Payne is a globe trotter and comes with marvelous views and motion pictures that will be of interest to all. A. M. Reitzel is a standard Lyceum lecturer who discusses "The Measure of a Man." Preston Bradley is one of Chicago's great preachers and orators. C. H. Plattenburg has made himself a big place on the platform with his discussions of community interests and the relation of town and country. Hazel Kepford is the reader par excellence who will unfold, in her charming style, that delightful story, "Polly of the Circus."

According to present plans the date of our Chautauqua will be about August 18, but no definite announcement can yet be made.

The Chautauqua will be Held About the Middle of August but Exact Date Not Yet Determined

Mr. H. A. Hedges, field superintendent of the Vawter Chautauqua System, has been in the city getting acquainted with our people and completing arrangements for the Chautauqua to be held here this summer. Mr. Hedges takes the place of Mr. O. E. Behmyer, resigned, who had charge last year.

While here Mr. Hedges completed the organization of the local forces, and the officers of the Chautauqua committee for the ensuing year will be as follows: D. E. Whitney, president; S. E. Hansing, secretary; H. E. Kondert, treasurer.

Mr. Hedges carries with him a case of photographs showing likenesses of the numerous people booked to appear here on the program. He is enthusiastic about the program and declares that it has been materially strengthened in many ways and that the present line-up leaves nothing to be desired.

There will be five musical organizations, one for each day. Mr. Hedges says these have all been selected with special reference to their fitness for the places they are to fill. The companies are: The Lawson Trio, The J. Walter Wilson Co., The Illinois Sextette, The Avon Sketch Club, and the Boucher Opera Co.

The speakers on the program include Congressman Lenroot, of Wisconsin; C. A. Payne; Alva M. Reitzel; Preston Bradley; C. H. Plattenburg, and Hazel Kepford.

The Mendelssohn Sextette is made up of six talented and charming young ladies who sing and play, and do skits and stunts galore. The Lawson Trio specializes with flute, violin and voice and renders programs of great variety and beauty. The Wilson Company is a combination of music and make-up with a great abundance of fine entertainment features.

The Avon Sketch club is one of those artistic organizations that take pride in its ability to handle costumed effects and combine play acting with music, both instrumental and vocal to produce the highest results in musical entertainment for the masses. The Boucher Opera Company will give our people a touch of city life by rendering in correct and splendid fashion selections from popular opera scenes. Donald Boucher himself will appear with the company.

Congressman Lenroot is the ranking public man of Wisconsin next to La Follette. He is a seasoned law-maker and stands high at Washington. The Chicago Tribune of January 31st published a leading article urging Lenroot as a presidential prospect for 1916.

Chas. A. Payne is a globe trotter and comes with marvelous views and motion pictures that will be of interest to all. A. M. Reitzel is a standard Lyceum lecturer who discusses "The Measure of a Man." Preston Bradley is one of Chicago's great preachers and orators. C. H. Plattenburg has made himself a big place on the platform with his discussions of community interests and the relation of town and country. Hazel Kepford is the reader par excellence who will unfold, in her charming style, that delightful story, "Polly of the Circus."

According to present plans the date of our Chautauqua will be about August 18, but no definite announcement can yet be made.

AN EASTER FUNCTION

Young Society Men Entertain at Citizens State Bank Hall on Monday Evening

Young society men of the city, Messrs. Dr. W. A. Erickson, Clark Henry, H. A. Swanson, Dr. P. L. Berge, Dr. A. Thompson, E. A. Kefgen, Richard Johnson, William Barber, James Alderman and Samuel English, entertained Monday evening at a dancing party in the Citizens State bank hall, 250 guests being present.

The hall was beautifully decorated with daffodils, Easter lilies, palms and ferns. Prapple and other refreshments were served. Among the out of town guests were Miss Irene Hodgins and Miss Rose Granier of Aitkin, Mr. Baker, Miss Maud of Detroit, Mrs. W. H. Denny, Miss Florence Denny, Miss Katherine Kenner, Miss Cullen of Duluth, Prof. Sherwood of Minneapolis, Miss Smallwood of Minot, and Miss Mary Bishop of St. Paul.

Dr. Berge and Miss Johnson led the grand march. Music was furnished by a four piece orchestra. Gentlemen were in full dress.

More New Millinery

This morning's express brought us new dress shapes. They are all the very late ones in the new colorings. We have particularly pretty ones in the sand shades.

With this same express shipment came a lot of new flowers and fruits and new faille and velvet ribbons.

New Alsation Bows in black and white—the last word in Smart Millinery—is another new novelty we have to show you.

"The Treason of Anatole"

A great war play. In this story of everyday life the tragedy of unnecessary warfare is brought home with a force which cannot fail to awaken even the most patriotic of us to the duties which we owe not only to our country, but to our loved one. This is a film certainly worth while and will be appreciated by every American who has the welfare of mankind at heart.

"Voices In The Night"

Eclair two-reel mystery drama, tells how a reporter, with only a voice for a clue, trails the man he is after and finds him on the bench—a judge—passing sentence upon a murderer.

CHAPTER XXIX. Ruth to the Rescue.

In honor of their engagement Sir Donald Faversham gently insisted that Ruth Gallon attend a ball which was to be given by the British officers. Ruth pleaded to be allowed not to go, but Consul Reynolds and his wife added their urgings to the baronet's, and even the time honored excuse of "nothing to wear" was firmly refused.

Though she said nothing to any one else about her feelings, she really could not refrain from accusing herself of disloyalty to John Dorr.

He was out in the hills risking his life to regain her fortune. Could she dance and take pleasure with a cheerful heart when she did not know whether he was living or dead?

However, she went and received the formal congratulations of a great many natty officers and the informal complaints of certain young Americans, who vowed that she was unpatriotic in choosing an English husband, and danced with Sir Donald and his friends and smiled and blushed at the compliments and frowned laughingly on the flirts and generally conducted herself as a happy bride to be should.

Faversham was delighted and told her so in many ways. And long after midnight, when Mrs. Reynolds was preparing to go home, he took Ruth out under the shadows of the garden trees and would have kissed her.

"Don't!" she said simply.

"What is the matter, darling?" he asked tenderly.

She stared out into the darkness, and he saw the pallor of her face.

"I am sure something has happened to John."

Faversham frowned. It was too bad that this man should always come between him and his betrothed. But his voice was very gentle as he answered:

"That is out of the question. Achmet is very faithful, and if anything had happened I should know of it."

Ruth shook her head and insisted that she was sure. The baronet laughed at her, but she was not to be put off.

"I am sure something has happened to John."

"I know John is in trouble," she said determinedly. "If you won't help me I'll go myself!"

Sir Donald argued as strongly as he could and in vain.

"I'm perfectly sure that John Dorr is in trouble," she repeated. "He's all alone up there among those awful natives and—"

"Achmet is with him," interposed Faversham.

"—and some one must go right away and help him," Ruth went on.

"You poor girl!" murmured Mrs. Reynolds. "I know how you feel, but you must get some rest. We'll talk it over later in the morning."

She drew Ruth away toward her room, with a backward glance of whimsical comfort for the baronet.

Faversham watched them go, stood doubtful for a moment, shook his head and departed.

The consul's wife found Ruth too stubborn to handle by herself, for she insisted that, as no one else would go, she would set out herself, and to emphasize her assertion began to change from her ball gown into a riding habit.

The consul came out in dressing gown and slippers when Ruth, fully clad, emerged from her room, still resisting the importunity of his wife.

He added many common sense arguments, but Ruth would not listen.

"I know that he is in trouble," she repeated.

"But if he were, which is most unlikely, you couldn't help him," Mr. Reynolds said bluntly. "In fact, you merely make matters worse."

When they found her obdurate they took silent counsel of one another, told her to wait a moment and vanished.

The instant they were gone Ruth slipped out of the house and boldly turned her face toward the hills now black against the night sky.

All day she traveled, strangely alone in a populous country. Many natives she met, but they merely looked curiously at the white girl in western riding clothes, and as she avoided villages she escaped the notice of any one in authority.

She knew that when her absence was certain both Mr. Reynolds and Sir Donald would come after her.

Night came, and she was still pushing on, though hungry and weary. In the darkness she performed kept to open paths, and it was on one of these that a patting native found her.

"Achmet!" she whispered when he raised his contorted face to hers.

In a few words he told her what had happened. She said curiously, "I know that. Where is he?"

Sir Donald's former servant looked at her and remembered the strangeness of things done by white women.

WHAT WAR MOVES MEAN

By J. W. T. Mason
Written for the United Press

New York, April 6.—The first positive information that the Russians have decided to use their Przemyśl army for the Hungarian campaign is contained in today's official announcement from Vienna that large Russian reinforcements from Przemyśl have compelled the Austrians to give way in the Beskid region. The Beskids are the highest part of the Carpathian range which district the Larkow pass provides railway communication from Przemyśl through Southern Galicia into Hungary. Przemyśl capitulated on March 22. It has required therefore nearly a fortnight to move the Russian besieging force over the 60 miles of railway that separates the San fortress from the Carpathian battle front. Part of this time undoubtedly was spent in debating the use to which the Przemyśl army should be put. The Austrian official report indicates that the invasion of Hungary was considered more important by the Russian general staff than an effort to capture Carcow. This unquestionably is the most advantageous service the fresh Russian forces can render the czar's western allies.

It is not quite yet apparent, however, that the Larkow pass and its vastly important railway has fallen into the hands of the Russians. Both Austrian and Russian officials report define gains and losses very vaguely, so that it is impossible to determine definitely whether the metal line of communication into Hungary for which the Slavs are now fighting has been won. In all probability the Austrians still retain possession of the Hungarian side of the mountains in the Larkow region. The Austrian army must be dislodged from the mountains and driven towards the plains, before the Russians can establish a sure ascendancy and make use of the Nagyar railway. It is probable that German reinforcements are being rushed to the assistance of the hard pressed Austrians. If the Slavs can establish themselves on the Hungarian side of the Larkow pass before the Germans arrive they will have won a highly important tactical advantage. This is the immediate work now before the Przemyśl army.

Rochester Regulates Saloons

Rochester, Minn., April 6.—Drastic action was taken by the city council in the regulation of saloons the coming year, when the aldermen met to grant the licenses. An ordinance was passed, without a dissenting vote, cutting off three hours each day. Saloons cannot open now until 7 a. m. and must close at 10 at night. Heretofore the opening hour was 5 a. m. and the closing hour 11 p. m. No opposition to the ordinance was found among saloon men.

Only thirteen men were granted licenses, instead of 15, as heretofore. A. W. De Villiers was refused a license, and H. Doughty failed to make application as the Commercial club will use the building, in which he was located for many years, for its community house.

QUITS RED RIVER OF NORTH

Government Discontinues Efforts to Make Stream Navigable.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 6.—The Red River of the North, once a highway of commerce, has been abandoned by the federal government as a navigable stream, so far as continued maintenance of work thereon is concerned.

Captain J. F. Hayes, in charge of the government dredging fleet at Grand Forks twenty-three years, has gone to Grand Rapids, Minn., and will take charge of the work the government is doing on the upper Mississippi.

"Open Season in the Fall."

In the opinion of Congressman D. R. Anthony of Kansas it will be an "open season for presidential candidates in the fall." He thinks that the race in the Republican party will begin earnestly about that time, and if the European war should end it will overshadow everything in the public prints.

PEACE IS SLOGAN OF DEMOCRATS

WILSON AS THE PRESERVER

However, Some Would Like to See More Ginger in Our Notes to Belligerents Regarding Their Attitude Toward Americans—Making Life Easier For Women on the Farm.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 6.—[Special.]—Friends of President Wilson are banking on the belief that there are more people in this country who want peace than want war and that as a result he will be popular throughout the country as the preserver of the nation's peace.

The slogan of the Democrats in the last campaign was, "War in the East; Peace in the West; Thank God For Woodrow Wilson!" And yet it was not considered a great Democratic victory when the votes were counted.

War presidents have frequently been re-elected. Even after the little brush with Spain the so-called "gunpowder men" won victories wherever they were candidates and in some states irrespective of parties.

Want a Little Ginger.

Although this is a peaceful nation, it may be said that some folks would appreciate just a little more ginger in the documents that are sent to the belligerents regarding Americans on the high seas. Our people would like to have plain spoken words with a definite meaning, so that the nations which have been interfering with Americans would know that it must stop. However, no matter what may be the attitude of the people on this particular subject, it is certain that President Wilson is not going to take any course which will involve the country in war.

However, no matter what may be the attitude of the people on this particular subject, it is certain that President Wilson is not going to take any course which will involve the country in war.

Women on the Farm.

Waking up to the fact that life for women on the farms throughout the country is disagreeable; that many boys who see their mothers drudge their lives out on the farm resolve that they will never be responsible for making any woman do the same; that unless something is done to relieve the present hardships there will be a still greater exodus from the farms, the agricultural department has endeavored to make a start toward doing something. Three bulletins have recently been issued giving the views of women from every part of the country upon the subject of improving the conditions for women on the farm. These pamphlets give what the women say in considerable detail.

They may result in something practical being done, although those who know the farm are aware that only one thing can help the farm women. That is the right kind of farm men—men who will not see their women suffer; who will take pains to make the burdens lighter; who will provide labor saving machinery and implements for their women as well as for themselves; in short, revolutionize the idea of farm men—and there will be a better life for farm women.

Walsh Like Clockwork.

Promptly at 10 o'clock each day when the ship lobby committee is in session Senator Walsh enters the big room where such hearings are held. He is never late nor early—the stroke of 10 is his time. Such punctuality is not generally known in congressional committees.

Talking Suffrage.

This is not a campaign year; there are no elections of importance. It is a year when there should be quiet times in politics. But such is not the case with the suffragists. They are on the job. Not only are the women making speeches and canvassing in different sections of the country, but they have a number of statesmen working for them.

Precedent Hunter Busy.

Because it was never done is often regarded as a reason why it never will be done with the precedent hunter. And these hunters are busy just now proving that this or that man cannot be elected because it has never been done. For instance, it is asserted that Weeks cannot be named because no senator has ever been selected. Then the belief is expressed that Burton or Root is more likely to be nominated because Benjamin Harrison had been two years out of the senate when he was elected president. And so goes gossip of one kind or another, as if these things had any real bearing upon a man's presidential prospects.

In the opinion of Congressman D. R. Anthony of Kansas it will be an "open season for presidential candidates in the fall." He thinks that the race in the Republican party will begin earnestly about that time, and if the European war should end it will overshadow everything in the public prints.

SATISFIES LONDON PAPERS

Press Comment is Unanimous on American Note.

London, April 6.—The American note in reply to the British order in council is discussed editorially in detail by the London morning papers. Its friendly tone is frankly admitted and Ambassador Page's letter dealing with the amicable relations between the two governments affords special gratification.

The note is regarded by the press as going near to recognition of the right to search neutral vessels. In general the arguments used are repetitions of those previously employed in the discussions and are, briefly, that Great Britain is in an exceptional position in which she is entitled to ask at the hands of the United States a certain amount of give and take.

"Don't!" she said simply.

"What is the matter, darling?" he asked tenderly.

She stared out into the darkness, and he saw the pallor of her face.

"I am sure something has happened to John."

Faversham frowned. It was too bad that this man should always come between him and his betrothed. But his voice was very gentle as he answered:

"That is out of the question. Achmet is very faithful, and if anything had happened I should know of it."

Ruth shook her head and insisted that she was sure. The baronet laughed at her, but she was not to be put off.

"I am sure something has happened to John."

"I know John is in trouble," she said determinedly. "If you won't help me I'll go myself!"

Sir Donald argued as strongly as he could and in vain.

"I'm perfectly sure that John Dor is in trouble," she repeated. "He's all alone up there among those awful natives and—"

"Achmet is with him," interposed Faversham.

"—and some one must go right away and help him," Ruth went on.

She drew Ruth away toward her room, with a backward glance of whimsical comfort for the baronet.

Faversham watched them go, stood doubtful for a moment, shook his head and departed.

The consul's wife found Ruth too stubborn to handle by herself, for she insisted that, as no one else would go, she would set out herself, and to emphasize her assertion began to change from her ball gown into a riding habit.

The consul came out in dressing gown and slippers when Ruth, fully clad, emerged from her room, still resisting the importunity of his wife.

He added many common sense arguments, but Ruth would not listen.

"I know that he is in trouble," she repeated.

"But if he were, which is most unlikely, you couldn't help him," Mr. Reynolds said bluntly. "In fact, you merely make matters worse."

When they found her obdurate they took silent counsel of one another, told her to wait a moment and vanished.

The instant they were gone Ruth slipped out of the house and boldly turned her face toward the hills now black against the night sky.

All day she traveled, strangely alone in a populous country. Many natives she met, but they merely looked curiously at the white girl in western riding clothes, and as she avoided villages she escaped the notice of any one in authority.

She knew that when her absence was certain both Mr. Reynolds and Sir Donald would come after her.

Night came, and she was still pushing on, though hungry and weary. In the darkness she performed kept to open paths, and it was on one of these that a painting native found her.

"Achmet!" she whispered when he raised his contorted face to hers.

In a few words he told her what had happened. She said curtly, "I know that. Where is he?"

Sir Donald's former servant looked at her and remembered the strange news of things done by white women.

WHAT WAR MOVES MEAN

By J. W. T. Mason
Written for the United Press

New York, April 6.—The first positive information that the Russians have decided to use their Przemsyl army for the Hungarian campaign is contained in today's official announcement from Vienna that large Russian reinforcements from Przemsyl have compelled the Austrians to give way in the Beskid region. The Beskids are the highest part of the Carpathian range which district the Lupkow pass provides railway communication from Przemsyl through Southern Galicia into Hungary. Przemsyl capitulated on March 22. It has required therefore nearly a fortnight to move the Russian besieging force over the 60 miles of railway that separates the San fortress from the Carpathian battle front. Part of this time undoubtedly was spent in debating the use to which the Przemsyl army should be put. The Austrian official report indicates that the invasion of Hungary was considered more important by the Russian general staff than an effort to capture Carcow. This unquestionably is the most advantageous service the fresh Russian forces can render the czar's western allies.

It is not quite yet apparent, however, that the Lupkow pass and its vastly important railway has fallen into the hands of the Russians. Both Austrian and Russian officials report definite gains and losses very vaguely, so that it is impossible to determine definitely whether the metal line of communication into Hungary for which the Slavs are now fighting has been won. In all probability the Austrians still retain possession of the Hungarian side of the mountains in the Lupkow region. The Austrian army must be dislodged from the mountains and driven towards the plains, before the Russians can establish a sure ascendancy and make use of the Nagyar railway. It is probable that German reinforcements are being rushed to the assistance of the hard pressed Austrians. If the Slavs can establish themselves on the Hungarian side of the Lupkow pass before the Germans arrive they will have won a highly important tactical advantage. This is the immediate work now before the Przemsyl army.

Nelson Will Speak

Laverne, Minn., April 6.—The 50th annual encampment of the G. A. R. of southwestern Minnesota will be held in this city in June. Senator Knute Nelson will be one of the principal speakers.

Rochester Regulates Saloons

Rochester, Minn., April 6.—Drastic action was taken by the city council in the regulation of saloons the coming year, when the aldermen met to grant the licenses. An ordinance was passed, without a dissenting vote, cutting off three hours each day.

Saloons cannot open now until 7 a. m. and must close at 10 at night. Heretofore the opening hour was 5 a. m. and the closing hour 11 p. m. No opposition to the ordinance was found among saloon men.

Only thirteen men were granted licenses, instead of 15, as heretofore. A. W. De Villiers was refused a license, and H. Doughty failed to make application as the Commercial club will use the building, in which he was located for many years, for its community house.

QUITS RED RIVER OF NORTH

Government Discontinues Efforts to Make Stream Navigable.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 6.—The Red River of the North, once a highway of commerce, has been abandoned by the federal government as a navigable stream, so far as continued maintenance of work thereon is concerned.

Captain J. F. Hayes, in charge of the government dredging fleet at Grand Forks twenty-three years, has gone to Grand Rapids, Minn., and will take charge of the work the government is doing on the upper Mississippi.

The failure of congress to continue the support of the Red River dredging work is responsible for the steps that have been taken by the army engineering corps in sending Captain Hayes to the Mississippi river enterprise. The big government equipment on the Red river will be docked and stored.

The Red River of the North, on which there has been no navigation for several years because of a low stage of water, was once an avenue for a great deal of commerce. Boats plied between Moorhead, or Georgetown, Minn., and Port Gary, now Winnipeg, for many years. At present there is no transportation on the river south of Winnipeg.

PEACE IS SLOGAN OF DEMOCRATS

Think Majority of Voters Are Opposed to Warfare.

WILSON AS THE PRESERVER

However, Some Would Like to See More Ginger in Our Notes to Belligerents Regarding Their Attitude Toward Americans—Making Life Easier For Women on the Farm.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 6.—[Special.]—Friends of President Wilson are banking on the belief that there are more people in this country who want peace than want war and that as a result he will be popular throughout the country as the preserver of the nation's peace. The slogan of the Democrats in the last campaign was, "War in the East; Peace in the West; Thank God For Woodrow Wilson!" And yet it was not considered a great Democratic victory when the votes were counted.

War presidents have frequently been re-elected. Even after the little brush with Spain the so-called "gunpowder men" won victories wherever they were candidates and in some states irrespective of parties.

Want a Little Ginger.

Although this is a peaceful nation, it may be said that some folks would appreciate just a little more ginger in the documents that are sent to the belligerents regarding Americans on the high seas. Our people would like to have plain spoken words with a definite meaning, so that the nations which have been interfering with Americans would know that it must stop. However, no matter what may be the attitude of the people on this particular subject, it is certain that President Wilson is not going to take any course which will involve the country in war.

Waking up to the fact that life for women on the farms throughout the country is disagreeable; that many boys who see their mothers drudge their lives out on the farm resolve that they will never be responsible for making any woman do the same; that unless something is done to relieve the present hardships there will be a still greater exodus from the farms, the agricultural department has endeavored to make a start toward doing something. Three bulletins have recently been issued giving the views of women from every part of the country upon the subject of improving the conditions for women on the farm. These pamphlets give what the women say in considerable detail.

They may result in something practical being done, although those who know the farm are aware that only one thing can help the farm women. That is the right kind of farm men—men who will not see their women suffer; who will take pains to make the burdens lighter; who will provide labor saving machinery and implements for their women as well as for themselves; in short, revolutionize the idea of farm men—and there will be a better life for farm women.

Walsh Like Clockwork.

Promptly at 10 o'clock each day when the ship lobby committee is in session Senator Walsh enters the big room where such hearings are held. He is never late nor early—the stroke of 10 is his time. Such punctuality is not generally known in congressional committees.

Talking Suffrage.

This is not a campaign year; there are no elections of importance. It is a year when there should be quiet times in politics. But such is not the case with the suffragists. They are on the job. Not only are the women making speeches and canvassing in different sections of the country, but they have a number of statesmen working for them.

Precedent Hunter Busy.

Because it was never done is often regarded as a reason why it never will be done with the precedent hunter. And these hunters are busy just now proving that this or that man cannot be elected because it has never been done. For instance, it is asserted that Weeks cannot be named because no senator has ever been selected. Then the belief is expressed that Burton or Root is more likely to be nominated because Benjamin Harrison had been two years out of the senate when he was elected president. And so goes gossip of one kind or another, as if these things had any real bearing upon a man's presidential prospects.

In the opinion of Congressman D. R. Anthony of Kansas it will be an "open season for presidential candidates in the fall." He thinks that the race in the Republican party will begin earnestly about that time, and if the European war should end it will overshadow everything in the public prints.

Feel the Loss of Palmer.

Now that A. Mitchell Palmer has actually left the Democratic national committee they begin to understand what a hole he has made. The Democrats of Pennsylvania in trying to choose a successor have found it a larger hole than they expected to find. Palmer had developed into an important figure in national politics.

SATISFIES LONDON PAPERS

Press Comment is Unanimous on American Note.

London, April 6.—The American note in reply to the British order in council is discussed editorially in detail by the London morning papers. Its friendly tone is frankly admitted and Ambassador Page's letter dealing with the amicable relations between the two governments affords special gratification.

The note is regarded by the press as going near to recognition of the right to search neutral vessels. In general the arguments used are repetitions of those previously employed in the discussions and are, briefly, that Great Britain is in an exceptional position in which she is entitled to ask at the hands of the United States a certain amount of give and take.

ALONG AUSTRIAN FRONTIER

Italy Reported Actively Assembling Her Troops.

Chiasso, Switzerland, April 6.—The assembling of Italian troops on the Austrian frontier is continuing with the greatest activity. All houses of peasants in the districts bordering the confines affected have been occupied by soldiers.

This information reaches Chiasso from Italian sources. It is learned from the same sources that still more important military activity is under way. Information on this point is refused transmission by the Italian censors.

The prohibition of the publication of army and navy movements which went into effect March 31 is being enforced strictly.

ROWLAND, SOX NEW PILOT.

Work of Leader of Chicagos Will Be Closely Watched.

Clarence Rowland, the new manager of the Chicago White Sox, is convincing those who have come in contact with him that he is a well versed baseball man. Theoretically Rowland seems to answer every purpose, but it remains to be seen how he will show when the season opens and there are things to do which show on the surface.

The coming season will be Rowland's first in a major league. His record in the minors is of the best, but things are quite different in the big leagues. To begin with, he will be opposed by masters of the art of managing, and his strategy will be opposed by men of much experience. Rowland may be capable of accomplishing wonders. His friends predict he will, and he seems to have been placed in charge of a team which is stronger than ever.

THE GOOD JUDGE HAS FRIENDS AMONG ALL CLASSES.

YOU'RE BIGGER'N ME, BUT I'LL BE GOL DARNED IF I'LL LET YOU HIT THAT FELLER. HE PUT US NEXT TO THE ONLY REAL TOBACCO CHEW.

I DON'T KNOW WHAT THEIR TROUBLE IS, BUT I'LL BET THE LITTLE FELLOW IS RIGHT.

SIZE doesn't count in a chew of tobacco any more than it does in men. It's quality that counts. A big wad doesn't do any good. But just a little of the Real Tobacco Chew tucked away in your cheek makes you so contented you want to share the discovery with the first man you meet.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and flavor. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.
